GREAT INDUCEMENTS OFFERED FOR Getting up Clubs.
Daily, Tri-Weekly and Weekly!

THE Democrat will continue to be a faithful advocate and supporter of the principles of the republican party. Its energies will be especially devoted to the west—to the advocacy of western interests and the assertion of western rights. The administration of Abraham Lincoln shall receive its cordial and unfaltering support. The great measures of a Pacific railroad on the central route, free lands for the landless; the improvement of river navigation; retrenchment and reform in all the departments of the federal government, will be urged with that zeal and devotion which have won for the Democrat its present position. On all questions it will boldly espouse the right, and only seek its advancement through the public good.

ITS NEWS, LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS DEPARTMENTS, shall be all that readers could desire. The Political, Agricultural and Manufacturing Interests of the country shall receive due attention.

THE COMMERCIAL CHARACTER of the Democrat is well established. This important interest is under the management of one thoroughly familiar with commercial affairs, and we pledge our honor that its figures shall always be the true index of trade here, while it furnishes daily more commercial news than any other paper in Missouri.

DAILY GAZETTE.

From the New York Tribune, Aug 10.
A Salt Water Story.

In the County of Clare, Ireland, lives a respectable, well-to-do family of the name of Dockay. The family is not extensive, but comprises among its members a dark-haired, black-eyed, plump young lady, not yet sixteen, named Bridget Dockay. About four years ago, when Bridget was but little over twelve years of age, she made the acquaintance of a dashing young sailor, and speedily became enamored of his blue shirt and wide turnover collar, to say nothing of his pleasant face and jovial spirit. The sailor-boy was also captivated with the juvenile Bridget, and their childish love was blissfully indulged until one unlucky day the parients of the lovely maiden awoke to a realizing sense of the inevitable tendency of affairs, and took measures accordingly. Believing Bridget to be too young and inexperienced to have a lover, they took steps to get rid of him, telling him that he had better wait a year or two before launching upon the broad sea of matrimony; they gave him an outfit, and induced him to go upon another voyage, hoping that time and absence would cure the young lady of her folly. For a few months letters from the absent lover reached Bridget regularly, but suddenly they ceased altogether, which Bridget attributed to an unfair interposition on the part of her papa. Suspense was gradually devouring the little miss, and, having imbibed a love of adventure from her briny lover, she resolved to seek him the wide world over. So Bridget assumed the garb of a sailor, and one night, when her parients were sound asleep, quietly stole away from her home, without once stopping to say good by. Proceeding on foot, with now and then a "lift" from some good-natured teamster, she journeyed to Liverpool. Arriving there, Bridget, disguised as a sailor, frequented the docks for several days, and eventually succeeded in shipping, under the assumed name of Henry Johnson, as cabin-boy on board an American passenger ship. Faithfully she performed all the duties required of her on the 'passage, her true character never once being suspected. Reaching New York, she was regularly discharged, and, coming ashore, sought high and low, throughout those places where sailors most do congregate, hoping to encounter her truant lover. Her search was fruitless, and, in despair, the bold-hearted damsel shipped on board another vessel, bound for a foreign port. This time she went before the-mast as a true-blue sailor, in which capacity she gave entire satisfaction to both officers and crew, no one of whom suspected that the stout-built, chubby, hardy fisted, undersized boy was a forsaken maiden searching in the forecastle for her sailor-lover. For three years and a half Bridget kept up this disguise, crossing the ocean five times in various ships, and visiting also several ports in Spain and other foreign lands.

A few days since Bridget arrived once more in New York, and, being discharged, put up at a sailors boarding house in Water street. On Thursday evening Bridget was "cruising" about the city in company with several other sailors, and at last strayed into a drinking saloon. Here the disguised maiden invited her friends to "take a nip," which of course they cheerfully did, at her expense. Other drinks were then called for, and, after they had been disposed of, the men were ungenerous enough to insist that Bridget, who appeared to have plenty of money, should foot the whole bill. To this she objected, and was, in consequence, handled rather roughly. During the melee which ensued, one of the sailors struck Bridget just "above the belt," and immediately exclaimed, "My God! it's a w..man!" Thereupon Bridget hitched up her pantaloons and took to her heels, never slacking her pace till she was snugly ensconced in her own boarding house. Still she is not safe, for a policeman of the fourth ward, hearing of the trouble in the saloon, and having learned the facts of the case, proceeded to the boarding house, and took Bridget into custody. She was conveyed to the station house, where she unbosomed herself, relating, in detail, the adventures of her life. On the following morning she was taken before Justice Osborn, at the Toombs, who transferred her to the care of Miss Foster, matron of that institution, who soon arrayed her in the more becoming, though less convenient garments of her sex. Bridget has made up her mind to abandon the sea forever, now that she has been discovered, and will seek a situation in some benevolent family.

HAMPTON.—The village of Hampton was situated on the left bank of the James river, about two miles from its entrance into the Chesapeake Bay, ninety-six miles southeast of Richmond, and was the capital of Elizabeth City county, Virginia. The part of the estuary of the James river situated between this town and Norfolk is called Hampton Roads. Hampton was an old town, having been settled in 1705, possessing much historic interest, and has been the birthplace of several distinguished naval officers. Its late importance was derived principally from its proximity to Fortress Monroe and Fort Calhoun. The former, in addition to its other sources of expenditure, has prior to the breaking out of the war and its occupation by Union troops, been one of the most fashionable places of resort in the south. The beach in the vicinity affords excellent bathing ground, and was thronged during the summer months with the wealthy and fashionable, and by some invalids, assembled there from Virginia, Maryland and other southern states. Hampton was two miles and a half distant from Fortress Monroe, and has been a flourishing town.

The oyster business formed one of the staples; hundreds of men coming there to catch and plant the bivalves, which were, in many instances, transplanted on northern beaches, and found a ready sale in our markets. Before the rebellion, Hampton numbered about two thousand inhabitants. Among the attractions in the place, were the military academy, five churches, several hotels, and numerous stores.

What a desolation it now presents. One hundred and fifty six years were consumed in building up this place, and the labors of a century and a half are swept away in a few hours. Such, however, are the stern realities of war.—New York Herald, 10th.

TESTIMONIAL.
To Whom it May Concern:

I AM now over 60 years of age. Three years since I became blind from Cataract in both eyes. Soon after I became blind an attempt to restore my sight by an operation was made in this city, which was unsuccessful. Hearing of the reputation of Dr. Folsom, as a skillful oculist, I was induced to consult him, though with very little hopes of relief. The doctor proposed an operation, to which I consented, which resulted in almost Perfect Restoration of Sight to one eye. He afterwards performed an operation on the other eye with success. I am now enjoying the inestimable blessing of good vision, and a much better general state of health than before. THOS. VAUGHN.

DAILY GAZETTE.

From the New York Tribune, Aug. 10.
A Salt-Water Story.

In the County of Clare, Ireland, lives a respectable, well-to-do family of the name of Dockay. The family is not extensive, but comprises among its members a dark-haired, black-eyed, plump young lady, not yet sixteen, named Bridget Dockay. About four years ago, when Bridget was but little over twelve years of age, she made the acquaintance of a dashing young sailor, and speedily became enamored of his blue shirt and wide turnover collar, to say nothing of his pleasant face and jovial spirit. The sailor-boy was also captivated with the juvenile Bridget, and their childish love was blissfully indulged until one unlucky day the parients of the lovely maiden awoke to a realizing sense of the inevitable tendency of affairs, and took measures accordingly. Believing Bridget to be too young and inexperienced to have a lover, they took steps to get rid of him, telling him that he had better wait a year or two before launching upon the broad sea of matrimony; they gave him an outfit, and induced him to go upon another voyage, hoping that time and absence would cure the young lady of her folly. For a few months letters from the absent lover reached Bridget regularly, but suddenly they ceased altogether, which Bridget attributed to an unfair interposition on the part of her papa. Suspense was gradually devouring the little miss, and, having imbibed a love of adventure from her briny lover, she resolved to seek him the wide world over. So Bridget assumed the garb of a sailor, and one night, when her parients were sound asleep, quietly stole away from her home, without once stopping to say good-by. Proceeding on foot, with now and then a "lift" from some good-natured teamster, she journeyed to Liverpool. Arriving there, Bridget, disguised as a sailor, frequented the docks for several days, and eventually succeeded in shipping, under the assumed name of Henry Johnson, as cabin-boy on board an American passenger ship. Faithfully she performed all the duties required of her on the passage, her true character never once being suspected. Reaching New York, she was regularly discharged, and, coming ashore, sought high and low, throughout those places where sailors most do congregate, hoping to encounter her truant lover. Her search was fruitless, and, in despair, the bold-hearted damsel shipped on board another vessel, bound for a foreign port. This time she went before-the-mast as a true-blue sailor, in which capacity she gave entire satisfaction to both officers and crew, no one of whom suspected that the stout-built, chubby, hardy-fisted, undersized boy was a forsaken maiden searching in the forecastle for her sailor-lover. For three years and a half Bridget kept up this disguise, crossing the ocean five times in various ships, and visiting also several ports in Spain and other foreign lands.

A few days since Bridget arrived once more in New York, and, being discharged, put up at a sailors boarding house in Water street. On Thursday evening Bridget was "cruising" about the city in company with several other sailors, and at last strayed into a drinking saloon. Here the disguised maiden invited her friends to "take a nip," which of course they cheerfully did, at her expense. Other drinks were then called for, and, after they had been disposed of, the men were ungenerous enough to insist that Bridget, who appeared to have plenty of money, should foot the whole bill. To this she objected, and was, in consequence, handled rather roughly. During the melee which ensued, one of the sailors struck Bridget just "above the belt," and immediately exclaimed, "My God! it's a woman!" Thereupon Bridget hitched up her pantaloons and took to her heels, never slacking her pace till she was snugly ensconced in her own boarding house. Still she is not safe, for a policeman of the fourth ward, hearing of the trouble in the saloon, and having learned the facts of the case, proceeded to the boarding house, and took Bridget into custody. She was conveyed to the station house, where she unbosomed herself, relating, in detail, the adventures of her life. On the following morning she was taken before Justice Osborn, at the Toombs, who transferred her to the care of Miss Foster, matron of that institution, who soon arrayed her in the more becoming, though less convenient garments of her sex. Bridget has made up her mind to abandon the sea forever, now that she has been discovered, and will seek a situation in some benevolent family.

HAMPTON.—The village of Hampton was situated on the left bank of the James river, about two miles from its entrance into the Chesapeake Bay, ninety-six miles south-east of Richmond, and was the capital of Elizabeth City county, Virginia. The part of the estuary of the James river situated between this town and Norfolk is called Hampton Roads. Hampton was an old town, having been settled in 1705, possessing much historic interest, and has been the birthplace of several distinguished naval officers. Its late importance was derived principally from its proximity to Fortress Monroe and Fort Calhoun. The former, in addition to its other sources of expenditure, has prior to the breaking out of the war and its occupation by Union troops, been one of the most fashionable places of resort in the south. The beach in the vicinity affords excellent bathing ground, and was thronged during the summer months with the wealthy and fashionable, and by some invalids, assembled there from Virginia, Maryland and other southern states. Hampton was two miles and a half distant from Fortress Monroe, and has been a flourishing town.

The oyster business formed one of the staples; hundreds of men coming there to catch and plant the bivalves, which were, in many instances, transplanted on northern beaches, and found a ready sale in our markets. Before the rebellion, Hampton numbered about two thousand inhabitants. Among the attractions in the place, were the military academy, five churches, several hotels, and numerous stores.

What a desolation it now presents. One hundred and fifty-six years were consumed in building up this place, and the labors of a century and a half are swept away in a few hours. Such, however, are the stern realities of war.—New York Herald, 10th.

TESTIMONIAL.
To Whom it May Concern:

I AM now over 60 years of age. Three years since I became blind from Cataract in both eyes. Soon after I became blind an attempt to restore my sight by an operation was made in this city, which was unsuccessful. Hearing of the reputation of Dr. Folsom, as a skillful oculist, I was induced to consult him, though with very little hopes of relief. The doctor proposed an operation, to which I consented, which resulted in almost Perfect Restoration of Sight to one eye. He afterwards performed an operation on the other eye with success. I am now enjoying the inestimable blessing of good vision, and a much better general state of health than before. THOS. VAUGHN.

Republican State Convention.

A Republican State Convention will be held at the Capital, in the city of Madison, at 12 o'clock M., on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of September next, for the purpose of nominating candidates for state officers.

Each assembly district, under the new apportionment, will be entitled to two delegates in the convention.

The committee recommend that the primary meetings for the selection of delegates be held on or before the 14th day of September, and that the district committees issue early calls for such meetings, that the people may be thoroughly notified, and choose delegates who fairly reflect their wishes.

HORACE RUBLEE,
Chairman State Republican Central Com.
Madison, August 12, 1861.

HONORABLE TESTIMONY.—Gov. Randall has returned to Madison, and the Journal says that he gives the most flattering account of the bravery of the men of the 2d Wisconsin regiment, in the late battle, and since. They occupy a proud position in the estimation of military men in and about Washington. Gen. Sherman, under whose command they fought at the battle of Bull's Run, speaks of them in the most complimentary manner. A few days ago, Gen. Sherman was desirous of having two hundred picked men, for the performance of some special service with him, and after looking through his brigade, he took the entire number from the Wisconsin second. This is something more substantial than a mere compliment of words. It is a practical illustration of confidence, of an unmistakable character. This regiment stands among the first of all the troops about Washington. It must be gratifying to every citizen of Wisconsin to learn that our state is represented in the war by such brave and patriotic men. All our regiments are receiving the same exalted position with the second, wherever they are seen.

MILITARY MATTERS.—The Lodi Guards have arrived at Camp Randall, and the Marquette Sharpshooters are expected to-day.

The governor has commissioned Chas. A. Hamilton, of Milwaukee, as the major of the 7th regiment. Mr. Hamilton is a lawyer by profession and has been for some years a resident of Milwaukee.

George Robbins, of Dane county, is appointed lieut. colonel of the 8th regiment. He is a graduate of the Vermont Military School, under the charge of Capt. Partridge.

BERDAN'S SHARP SHOOTERS.—We are glad to see that Col. Berdan's success in raising his regiment of sharp shooters has been so great, that he is now likely to organize three regiments instead of one. Ten companies are now ready, with a hundred men in each; and every man has been put to the test, and has made the required "string," which is ten consecutive shots at six hundred feet distance, averaging not more than five inches from the centre of the target. The governors of thirteen loyal states have agreed to furnish $10,000 each to equip the men; Col. F. P. Blair, Jr., has privately become responsible for a like amount, and a citizen of Kentucky has subscribed the same.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.—The democratic central committee have issued a call for a democratic state convention to meet at the Capitol on Wednesday, the 2d day of October next.

The call invites all electors to participate in the election of delegates who "are opposed to the sectional platform and policy of the republican party."

FOR CAIRO.—Forty cases of eight-inch grape shot; 48 boxes of cannister for thirty two pounders; 420 boxes of shell for thirty-two pounders; 500 boxes of eight-inch shell; 40 boxes of grape for thirty-two pounders; and 351 boxes of munitions of war, passed through Cincinnati on Monday night, destined for Cairo.

The United States marshal sold at public auction in Cincinnati, as confiscated goods seized on their transit south, 18 pairs of shoes at 80 cents per pair, 12 pairs of men's boots for $26, 167 copies of Gelham's manual at 40 cents each, and two mowing machine blades for $5.

FOR THE GUN BOATS.—A party of twenty-five men, and the following officers—Captoins Rogers and Stemble, and Masters Sebastian, Stemble and Kerny—have left Cincinnati for Lawrenceburg, where they will take the railroad for Cairo for gunboat service.

ARRIVAL OF THE FIRST.—A private dispatch received in this city yesterday afternoon stated that the Wisconsin First left Pittsburg yesterday afternoon, to return by the way of Cleveland, Detroit and Grand Haven. If such is the case, the regiment will arrive here Saturday morning between 11 and 12 o'clock.

The Fort Wayne road had the contract for returning the troops, but owing to the water carrying away one or two culverts east of Alliance, the route was changed.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

It is said that Judge Wayne, of the United States supreme court, though a citizen of Georgia, is now in Washington for the purpose of taking his accustomed seat upon the bench.

Poisoned bulletts were used by the rebels at the battle of Rich Mountain.

BY TELEGRAPH.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,
Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.

It is said that Judge Garrison made formal application to Gen. Duryea to ascertain what force could be had in Kings county to execute a writ of habeas corpus in the case of the Baltimore police commissioners. Duryea replied about 1,400 but the company was in possession of no artillery sufficiently powerful to make any impression on the walls of Fort LaFayette. It would require between 5,000 and 10,000 men to take them. So the matter rests for the present.

Judge Harrison, of Brooklyn, issued a writ of habeas corpus on application of Col. Jack, in behalf of about 150 United States troops at Fort Hamilton, surrendered by Gen. Twiggs, and released upon parole. Their counsel has written to the secretary of war requesting that the government allow the execution of the writ, as it will save the necessity of even indirectly recognizing the legality of the obligation which was imposed on the men by the rebels.

Geo. N. Sanders, late navy agent here, is a defaulter to the amount of $21,000. A process is issued against his sureties, R. J. Walker and Zeno Schedder.

Washington specials say it is understood that Secretary Seward intends informing Lord Lyons that British subjects are engaged in furnishing aid to the rebels in direct violation of the Queen's proclamation.

The Commercial has information that Gen. Pillow broke up the camp at New Madrid Friday precipitately, and moved back to Randolph. Seven steamers were seized at Memphis on Thursday and went to New Madrid, bringing Pillow's command back, arriving Friday noon during the intermediate time. The passengers were detained at Memphis and suffered severely. The movement is supposed to be on account of the active preparations of Fremont at Cairo.

Special to Post.—It is reported that evidence has been discovered showing that when Jeff. Davis resigned his seat in the United States senate, he made out a list of the men who were to be made officers in the rebel army.

Mr. Maynard, of Tennessee, arrived here yesterday, and was not molested on his way. The Evening Star has a dispatch denying that McCulloch was killed in the battle.

Passes are now required on all roads leading to Washington.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.

Mure, the bearer of rebel dispatches, is imprisoned at Ft. LaFayette.

A special Washington dispatch to the Tribune says 62 recusants of the 79th regiment will be sent to the fortress to work out their three years on the fortification.

Ex-Minister Faulkner has requested an interview with Secretary Cameron.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 15.

Provost marshal issued stringent orders against wearing concealed weapons by citizens, or giving away of any description of fire arms by gun makers or other dealers except by special permit.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 15—10½ P. M.

A messenger that arrived this evening reports that Gen. Sigel was encamped about three miles from Rolla, where there was good water, and would arrive at Rolla to-day, the 15th. He was in no danger. There had been no pursuit, and he was perfectly safe all the way. Owing to only one ferry boat being at the Gasconade river, considerable trouble and delay ensued in transporting the troops and beggage across.

A captain in Sigel's command, that has arrived, states that there were no signs of a pursuit, and none was expected when he left. An immense panic existed along the route from Springfield, and hundreds of the inhabitants, men, women and children had left their homes and were coming with Sigel's army. About six regiments were at Rolla when he left.

The messenger stated that during the first of the battle, a company of federal troops rushed into the enemy's camp and entered a tent where they found $7,000, which they secured, before being obliged to retreat.—He states that had the federals been two more regiments in number they would have been able to have pursued the enemy and effectually disperse them.

A train is expected here at 11 o'clock to-night, and will probably bring the body of Gen. Lyon. It is embalmed in a metallic coffin, which had been sent from Rolla by Col. Wyman for that purpose. The body will be at once sent on to Connecticut.

The city has been quiet to-day. A company of cavalry arrived from Adams county, Ill., and immediately marched to Col. Ellis' regiment at the barracks. No reinforcements were sent forward to-day.

Special Dispatch to the Chicago Times.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 15—10 A. M.

The report current yesterday that Hardee had reached Pilot Knob, proves to be a secession cheat upon the military authorities, to cause that to divert troops to that point and prevent the full reinforcement of Gen. Sigel.

Hardee is believed to be yet in the southwest, and may try to cut off Gen. Sigel.

The Missouri Democrat publishes this morning a list of one hundred and fifty killed and wounded in the recent battle near Springfield, in the Missouri first, Kansas first and second and Iowa first regiments, saying this is not more than one-fourth of the whole federal loss.

It was the Iowa first regiment that Gen. Lyon led to the charge when he was killed. That regiment gained great honor in the battle.

The Kansas regiments operated effectively by forming ambuscades. They would lie flat on the ground until the enemy approached closely, and then fire deadly volleys into their ranks.

The Illinois 14th, 15th and 16th regiments reached Rolla yesterday.

Gen. Lyon's body will be sent to Connecticut.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 15—12 P. M.

Mr. Dobbins, mail agent on the North Missouri railroad, had a son sixteen years old killed in the battle near Springfield.

Persons in that engagement think that Gen. Sigel's regiment suffered a heavier loss than any other. The enemy, after shooting down his artillery horses, made a rush upon his position with infantry and cavalry. He extricated himself without losing the prisoners previously taken.

The federal volunteers fought as well as the regulars, though the latter manœvered better and quicker.

The Union men generally formed ranks of two deep. The enemy often appeared in masses and squares, presenting a fair mark for our artillery, and their losses were heavy. They stood fire well, but retreated whenever Gen. Lyon's forces prepared for a bayonet charge. The battle is considered the fiercest and bloodiest ever fought in America.

The rumor that Gen. Sigel had arrived within three miles of Rolla is untrue, as no train has arrived from that direction to-night.

Special despatch to the Chicago Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15, 1861.

Capt. Craven of the Potomac flotilla, recently, at the request of Gen. Dix, went into a creek on the Virginia shore, lower Potomac, carrying a flag of truce, with a request to be permitted to bring off the family of a refugee. The disunionists there refused to permit the family to leave, on the ground that the man was a deserter from the Virginia militia.

Elmira is substituted for Pittsburg as a camp of rendezvous, and it is permitted to add other convenient places. Each is to be in charge of a regular officer.

Commander Craven advises Gen. McClellan to fortify the Maryland shore of the lower Potomac and encamp regiments at several points.

A letter from Great Savage Mountain indicates that the rebels may try to make an inroad into western Virginia by that route. The Ohio, Indiana and Maryland troops there are ready.

Major McMichael, son of the editor of Philadelphia North American, is appointed assistant adjutant general.

The son of Alexander Cummings of the New York World is appointed a first lieutenant.

Gen. McClellan's order, read to the 79th yesterday, was very severe. He says that causes of mutiny in their ranks were frivolous and groundless. Their course showed them wanting in the first virtue of a soldier—obedience; and occurring just at this time, it has raised the strongest suspicion of the most abject cowardice. Consequently their colors would be taken away, and restored only after good conduct in camp and battle should have proved their right to carry them. The regiment is now encamped, with others of Sickles' brigade, near the lunatic asylum.

Judge Wayne of Georgia, of the supreme court, has issued a writ of habeas corpus for one Stephens, of the Minnesota regiment. The question to be decided is whether soldiers originally three months' men, and who afterwards enlisted for the war, can be held.

Special despatch to the Chicago Tribune.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 15—11 P. M.

This city is all alive with the preparations for an active and vigorous campaign. Intelligence from Washington points to the acceptance of an indefinite number of troops from Illinois, the organization of which is to be left entirely to the direction of Gov. Yates. Already the quartermaster general has been clothed with authority to largely increase his facilities for the manufacture of ammunition, and to make additional contracts for clothing and equipments.

The troops continue to arrive from all parts of the state. There are now at Camp Butler 3,000 men.

General Prentiss passed through the city yesterday, en route for St. Louis, in accordance with the wishes of General Fremont.

Capt. Delano's company of Adams County Dragoons were ordered to move to St. Louis last night, and were promptly provided by Gens. Wood and Mather with outfits and transportation. The company is designed to serve with the command of Gen. Prentiss.

Brigadier General John A. McClernand arrived from the east to-day, and will immediately proceed to organize his brigade.—The relations between himself and Gov. Yates are of the most friendly character, and they will heartily co-operate in the great work of superintending the operations of Illinois in the present conflict.

Some 35 or 40 bales of blankets, en route from the east to St. Louis, and supposed to be contraband, were stopped to day until orders from Gen. Fremont should be received permitting their delivery to the consignees—Field & Brothers.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 15.

The fleet of ten steamers which has been laid up fifteen miles below here for some time past was brought here to-day by order of Gen. Fremont, to prevent the possibility of their being taken by the secessionists.

Gen. Pope has about completed the appointment of the committee of safety in the counties of his department, according to special orders already telegraphed. Since the adoption of this plan for the preservation of property, acts of violence have materially diminished, and it is believed in a short time will entirely cease.

It is stated that some seven thousand rebel troops are approaching Ironton from south. The federal troops in that region are posted at Pilot Knob, Ironton and Arcadia, three villages which lie about two miles apart in a narrow valley, the entrance to which can be easily defended by artillery, and a flank movement is not apprehended in consequence of the impassible condition of the roads around the valley. Col. Blair arrived to-day.

CAIRO, Aug. 15.

The four regiments—11th, 17th, 18th and 19th—which left here to-day, are destined to Herculaneum, 20 miles below St. Louis, and at which point the Iron Mountain railroad leaves the river. They were called from here by Gen. Fremont.

There has been nothing heard from Pillow to-day. Scouts report that Jeff. Thompson's rebels have fallen back from Charleston to Sykes on, where they are fortifying. All the railroad bridges between Charleston and Sykeston have been burned by them.

Two of the gun-boats are gone down the river to-day on a reconnoitering expedition. Capt. Roger N. Stembel, U. S. N., arrived here to night with thirty recruits for the boats.

The steamers Empress and Graham got in this afternoon with a large lot of mules, wagons, &c.

To-Day's Report.

MORNING DESPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15

Tribune's despatch.—Gen. Rosencranz is authorized to accept regiments from western Virginia, which he does so as fast as they are ready for service.

Gen. Sumner was ordered to day to raise without delay, a column of 5,000 or 10,000 Californians, and march them into Texas and Arkansas. The despatches went by telegraph to Ft. Kearney, thence by pony express. Another order will soon be sent to California for a regiment of cavalry.

An order has gone to Europe for 15,000 more arms.

It is rumored that a rebel force is moving from Morfield to Great Savage mountain pass, to reinforce Gen. Wise. The troops which hold the pass, are ready for them.

The Tribune says the southern pirates are playing a desperate and bloody game. Our North Carolina correspondent this morning gives the statement of a British sailor named Ross, who had been impressed to serve as a gunner on board the Speed, by which it appears that on the 31st July, near Nag's Head, the pirates attacked and took possession of a British vessel, which they burned, after destroying the entire crew. Ross having refused to fight against his countrymen, was shot at and wounded by the captain of the Speed, and afterwards confined in irons. He escaped by the aid of a fellow sailor, who had also been impressed. Ross is endeavoring to make his way north and wishes to lay the subject before the British officials.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.

Herald's dispatch.—Major General Butler has been authorized to raise a division of 5,000 men in Massachusetts, and is to be granted leave of absence to superintend in person the organization of the division. Gen. Butler will have full power to thoroughly appoint the new division, providing it does not cost more in Massachusetts than it would cost here.

It is reported by passengers arrived to-night from the west, by way of Harper's Ferry, that Gen. Rosencranz, with a small command, is in a precarious position in a mountain gap in the neighborhood of Big Spring, and that a rebel force had cut him off from water.

Evidences of an advance of the enemy toward our lines are daily multiplying.

Yesterday a resident of Virginia, living near Claremont, five miles from Alexandria, reports the rebels at Brush Hill and Claremont. The efforts of the rebels to gather men into the secession fold have not been abandoned.

It was noticed some weeks ago that a considerable rebel force had been concentrated in the upper part of Accomac county, on the eastern shore of Virginia. It appears that there are about 150 or 200 armed rebels there.

Gen. Tilghman, who was deposed from his militia rank last spring, by Gov. Hicks, and subsequently restored by the state legislature, is organizing the disunionists in the lower counties of Maryland. He is about to proceed to Accomac to take command of the Virginia forces there, and march them up into the middle of the eastern shore of Maryland, as the nucleus for the formation of a rebel army there, which shall, if it can do nothing else, control the elections in the fall, so as to secure a disunion majority in the legislature and enable the secessionists to pass a secession ordinance, or perhaps to enforce an ordinance of secession that may be passed by the present legislature at its adjourned session.

World's dispatch.—The states of Kentucky and Tennessee have been constituted a separate military command, to be called the department of Cumberland, Brig. Gen. Robt. Anderson commanding.

Six vessels of war lay off Acquia Creek yesterday, among them the Yankee, which had a collision with the rebel steamer Geo. Page.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.

The first new gun boat will be launched to-morrow; another next week and four others in fifteen days.

Thomas S. Serrill, a violent secessionist, was arrested on the arrival of the Persia, with £40,000 in Bank of England notes, the proceeds of a loan for the confederate states. Serrill is a native of New Orleans, about 50 years old, and very wealthy. A number of letters and important papers were also found upon him.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 16.

A messenger from Gen. Sigel arrived early this morning. He reports Gen. Sigel 15 miles this side of Lebanon, expecting to reach Rolla to-day. He had not been molested on the route. Gen. Lyon was buried on Col. Phelps' farm, near Springfield. It was reported that the rebels had entered Springfield and were encamped in and around the town. The messenger also states that the whole number of killed, wounded and missing on the federal side does not exceed 400; and that McCulloch and a number of rebel officers were killed.

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 16.

By a private despatch from Col. Starkweather, we learn that the First Wisconsin Regiment will be here to-morrow, and proceed from the depot to Camp Scott, their old camping ground, where they will probably be mustered out of service.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.

Special to Post.—Our foreign relations attract the attention of the government at present. The administration at all hazards will maintain its right to close the rebel ports. The question is now under discussion between our government and those of England and France, and it is believed that our right will be fully conceded.

The National Intelligencer has a theory that Ex-Minister Faulkner is not imprisoned because he intended to join the rebel army, but that he is held as hostage for Congressman Ely and Messrs. McGraw and Harris, non-combatants, now in the hands of the enemy.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.

A party of six men left the steamer Roseth yesterday, and landed at Mathews Point yesterday for the purpose of reconnoitering. They were fired on by a party of rebels, concealed in the brush, and four of them killed. The bodies of the dead seamen arrived at the navy yard to-day.

SYRACUSE, Aug. 16.

Mud Lock on the Oswego canal is repaired, and navigation resumed last night. Navigation on the Erie is uninterrupted.

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.

J. A. King, a catholic priest, was last eve taken into custody and conveyed to the detective police of New York, by a number of excited Germans, who alleged that he was a secessionist. They charged that he partook of lager beer with a number of volunteers and tried to induce them to desert their companies. He abused the government outrageously, contending that the southern confederacy ought to be recognized, and finally became so bold in his assertions as to enrage the Germans, and they at once arrested him. Their prisoner was detained for examination.

BOSTON, Aug. 16.

The British steamer Eastern State, from Yarmouth, Novia Scotia, which arrived this morning, brought four hhds. and 92 bbls. spirits of turpentine, and 31 bales of North Carolina cotton, which is presumed to have escaped the blockade, and was taken to Yarmouth, N. S. It is said the owner of the turpentine will clear 17,000 dollars.

FORT MONROE, Aug. 15.

The report that the rebels around Fox Hill have connected a wire with the telegraph from Old Point to Newport News, and thus obtained our despatches, is found to be entirely without foundaiion.

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 16.

A late New Orleans paper has the following: The board of underwriters, following the wake of the cotton factors of New Orleans, have passed a resolution of more than usual interest to steamboats. It is as follows:

Resolved, That no river insurance on cotton bound to this port, nor fire insurance on cotton in the city of New Orleans be taken until the blockade of the port is raised, and its free navigation resumed. Cotton on plantations may be insured against fire to the extent of three fourths its value, provided it is stored in lots not exceeding one hundred and fifty bales, and the lots at three hundred feet apart.

The elephant belonging to a troupe of traveling equestrians in France, called the Troupe Americaine, recently brooke loose and devoured such a mass of newly cut clover that it became dreadfully swollen and expired in a few hours.

CRITTENDEN'S AMENDMENT.—Mr. Crittenden has improved since the day in which he went about making compromises. He now goes for making war. At a speech at Columbus lately, he said of the war:

"We must meet it like men. It is not a war that is to be prosecuted for the sake of war, and ought to be conducted with none of the common barbarities of war. It must nevertheless, be prosecuted by no half way measures. My friends, we must gather the utmost strength of the country, and gird up the energies of our minds in this momentous contest. And let it be prosecuted only for the purpose that it ought to be carried on, and concluded for the restoration of our government and the Union.

It becomes, therefore, a duty to maintain this government and this magnificent land from the terrible calamity of disunion.—This I would aim by all the powers of my life to prevent. Hence it is that I have just come from voting millions of money and hundreds of thousand of men; and in order that the issue may be decided more speedily and our erring brethren united to us once more. For, fellow citizens, I believe we shall be re-united. And I have confidence in the belief that, instead of destroying or even weakening us, this war will make our Union stronger than ever before."

These are the latest and best of Mr. Crittenden's amendments.

BLOODY TRAGEDY.—The Nebraska City News has been furnished with the particulars of a most bloody tragedy that occurred on the 12th ultimo on Rock Creek, some one hundred and ten miles from that city. It smacks of frontier life all through:

One D. C. McCandless, a noted desperado, had occupied a station on the mail route from Leavenworth to Fort Kearney, and had sold out to the express company. After a time he got tired of his bargain, and endeavored to buy it back again, but the express company refused to sell. He thereupon threatened to take it by force. He had, it seems, organized a band of secessionists for the purpose of robbery and murder; and with the aid of two of the band, James Wood and James Gordon, made an attempt to regain the station and kill its occupants. On the 12th they attacked the station, and while McCandless attempted to effect an entrance, Wood and Gordon went in pursuit of a woman who happened to be outside. While pursuing her around the house, Mr. Heacox, who was inside, shot McCandless, killing him instantly. The two outside then made for the door, but were met by Heacox, who immediately shot down Gordon. Wood, finding the place rather hot, started to run; but when he had got about sixty yards from the house, a shot from Heacox brought him down also. Heacox used a navy revolver, and fired but three times, killing his man instantly each shot.

We learn that this McCandless has been a terror to the road for some time, and that he had banded some eight or ten men together to commit depredations on settlers and travelers, who were boasting of their rebellious attitude to the country.

TWO WAUKESHA BOYS POISONED—NARROW ESCAPE.—When the fifth regiment arrived at Baltimore, two of the Waukesha Union Guards, we learn, were poisoned by an old female fiend, and narrowly escaped losing their lives. One of the victims, Mr. Orlando Culver, writes the following particulars of the circumstances to his wife, in this village. He says:

When the regiment arrived here, (Baltimore,) John Doughty and myself, being unwell, were put into a car to wait for a carriage to carry us to the camp ground.—While waiting there, several of the citizens came round, and one lady, who seemed very enthusiastic in our cause, desired to get us food and drink. She did bring cakes and water. John ate one cake; I ate two and drank some water, and in about half an hour afterwards, was siezed with violent vomiting, cramps and pains. I was dangerously sick for about twelve hours, but by good medical treatment, am about all right again. My body was covered with large, hard lumps, which were very painful. John Doughty was also in a bad way, but not as sick as I was. The old rip, there is no doubt, designed to kill us.—Waukesha Democrat.

Whisky is not demonstrated to be so potent an agent in the harvest field in extreme hot weather, as many claim. A farmer in this county set four men to bind after a reaper, one of the hottest days of last week. Two of them used whisky, and would not work without it. The other two drank no whisky at all, but one of them used water sweetened slightly with molasses, with a smart sprinkling of ginger, while the other eschewed all such gimcracks, and fell back upon pure Adam's ale. For the first three hours the men kept well together, there being no apparent difference in their respective capacities for doing that kind of work. As Old Sol ascended the sky, his rays smote them with a power which drew the perspiration in streams down their faces and bodies. The men who used the whisky now began to flag, wipe their faces, and complain of the heat, ever and anon drawing a suspicious flask for a sip or two—for they were only moderate users of the article, but nevertheless believed it to be impossible to go through harvest without it—and finally, about 11 o'clock one of them left the field for a tree, used up by the heat and the fiery stimulus he had poured into his stomach; the other failed to appear after dinner. The remaining two went through the sweltering afternoon, with scarcely a breath of air on the stir, and performed a big day's work each. The one who drank the ginger was troubled with a severe headache near the close of the day. Not being subject at all to headache, he inferred that it might have been caused by the ginger, and omitted it the next day, when he found that he was not troubled with it again. Our friend says that when he sees whisky going into the harvest field that he is always very sure there will be only half the work done that there would be if it was kept out. Laborers addicted to the habit of stimulating with this miserable stuff, are generally the ones visited by coup de soleil.—Belvidere Standard.

THE NEW ORLEANS BLOCKADE.—Intelligence has been received that another privateer steamer, the McRea, from New Orleans, ran the blockade on the 30th of July. Letters have been received in this city from persons on the steamer Brooklyn, one of which we published a few days ago, stating that the privateer Sumter which has been making such havoc with our commerce, might easily have been captured when she left New Orleans, by the Brooklyn, if Capt. Poor, to the astonishment of the whole crew, had not ordered the chase to cease when they were within range, and were fast overhauling her. This is probably another case of the same kind. We have good reasons for believing that a traitor is in command of the Brooklyn who is playing into the hands of the enemy.

TAKING SHOT COOLLY.—In the late battle at Bull's Run, a soldier, around whom the cannon shot were flying pretty thick, on seeing one strike and bury itself in a bank near him, sprang to the hole it had scooped out, remarking, "Shoot away, you can't hit twice in the same place." At that instant another struck a few feet distant, almost covering the fellow with sand and gravel. Emerging from what had so nearly become his grave, he continued the unfinished sentence, "but you can come so pesky near it that the first hole is uncomfortable."

DIED.

In this city on the evening of the 15th, DANIEL, infant son of Wm. H. and Sarah M. Ebbetts, aged one year and five months.

The funeral will take place to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock. Services on the occasion to be attended at Trinity Church. The friends of the parents are invited to attend.

Republican State Convention.

A Republican State Convention will be held at the Capital, in the city of Madison, at 12 o'clock M., on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of September next, for the purpose of nominating candidates for state officers.

Each assembly district, under the new apportionment, will be entitled to two delegates in the convention.

The committee recommend that the primary meetings for the selection of delegates be held on or before the 14th day of September, and that the district committees issue early calls for such meetings, that the people may be thoroughly notified, and choose delegates who fairly reflect their wishes.

HORACE RUBLEE,
Chairman State Republican Central Com.
Madison, August 12, 1861.

HONORABLE TESTIMONY.—Gov. Randall has returned to Madison, and the Journal says that he gives the most flattering account of the bravery of the men of the 2d Wisconsin regiment, in the late battle, and since. They occupy a proud position in the estimation of military men in and about Washington. Gen. Sherman, under whose command they fought at the battle of Bull's Run, speaks of them in the most complimentary manner. A few days ago, Gen. Sherman was desirous of having two hundred picked men, for the performance of some special service with him, and after looking through his brigade, he took the entire number from the Wisconsin second. This is something more substantial than a mere compliment of words. It is a practical illustration of confidence, of an unmistakable character. This regiment stands among the first of all the troops about Washington. It must be gratifying to every citizen of Wisconsin to learn that our state is represented in the war by such brave and patriotic men. All our regiments are receiving the same exalted position with the second, wherever they are seen.

MILITARY MATTERS.—The Lodi Guards have arrived at Camp Randall, and the Marquette Sharpshooters are expected to-day.

The governor has commissioned Chas. A. Hamilton, of Milwaukee, as the major of the 7th regiment. Mr. Hamilton is a lawyer by profession and has been for some years a resident of Milwaukee.

BERDAN'S SHARP SHOOTERS.—We are glad to see that Col. Berdan's success in raising his regiment of sharp-shooters has been so great, that he is now likely to organize three regiments instead of one. Ten companies are now ready, with a hundred men in each; and every man has been put to the test, and has made the required "string," which is ten consecutive shots at six hundred feet distance, averaging not more than five inches from the centre of the target. The governors of thirteen loyal states have agreed to furnish $10,000 each to equip the men; Col. F. P. Blair, Jr., has privately become responsible for a like amount, and a citizen of Kentucky has subscribed the same.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.—The democratic central committee have issued a call for a democratic state convention to meet at the Capitol on Wednesday, the 2d day of October next.

The call invites all electors to participate in the election of delegates who "are opposed to the sectional platform and policy of the republican party."

FOR CAIRO.—Forty cases of eight-inch grape shot; 48 boxes of cannister for thirty two pounders; 420 boxes of shell for thirty-two pounders; 600 boxes of eight-inch shell; 40 boxes of grape for thirty-two pounders; and 351 boxes of munitions of war, passed through Cincinnati on Monday night, destined for Cairo.

The United States marshal sold at public auction in Cincinnati, as confiscated goods seized on their transit south, 18 pairs of shoes at 80 cents per pair, 12 pairs of men's boots for $26, 167 copies of Gelham's manual at 40 cents each, and two mowing machine blades for $5.

FOR THE GUN BOATS.—A party of twenty-five men, and the following officers—Captoins Rogers and Stemble, and Masters Sebastian, Stemble and Kerny—have left Cincinnati for Lawrenceburg, where they will take the railroad for Cairo for gunboat service.

ARRIVAL OF THE FIRST.—A private dispatch received in this city yesterday afternoon stated that the Wisconsin First left Pittsburg yesterday afternoon, to return by the way of Cleveland, Detroit and Grand Haven. If such is the case, the regiment will arrive here Saturday morning between 11 and 12 o'clock.

The Fort Wayne road had the contract for returning the troops, but owing to the water carrying away one or two culverts east of Alliance, the route was changed.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

It is said that Judge Wayne, of the United States supreme court, though a citizen of Georgia, is now in Washington for the purpose of taking his accustomed seat upon the bench.

Poisoned bulletts were used by the rebels at the battle of Rich Mountain.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.

It is said that Judge Garrison made formal application to Gen. Duryea to ascertain what force could be had in Kings county to execute a writ of habeas corpus in the case of the Baltimore police commissioners. Duryea replied about 1,400 but the company was in possession of no artillery sufficiently powerful to make any impression on the walls of Fort LaFayette. It would require between 5,000 and 10,000 men to take them. So the matter rests for the present.

Judge Harrison, of Brooklyn, issued a writ of habeas corpus on application of Col. Jack, in behalf of about 150 United States troops at Fort Hamilton, surrendered by Gen. Twiggs, and released upon parole. Their counsel has written to the secretary of war requesting that the government allow the execution of the writ, as it will save the necessity of even indirectly recognizing the legality of the obligation which was imposed on the men by the rebels.

Geo. N. Sanders, late navy agent here, is a defaulter to the amount of $21,000. A process is issued against his sureties, R. J. Walker and Zeno Schedder.

Washington specials say it is understood that Secretary Seward intends informing Lord Lyons that British subjects are engaged in furnishing aid to the rebels in direct violation of the Queen's proclamation.

The Commercial has information that Gen. Pillow broke up the camp at New Madrid Friday precipitately, and moved back to Randolph. Seven steamers were seized at Memphis on Thursday and went to New Madrid, bringing Pillow's command back, arriving Friday noon during the intermediate time. The passengers were detained at Memphis and suffered severely. The movement is supposed to be on account of the active preparations of Fremont at Cairo.

Special to Post.—It is reported that evidence has been discovered showing that when Jeff. Davis resigned his seat in the United States senate, he made out a list of the men who were to be made officers in the rebel army.

Mr. Maynard, of Tennessee, arrived here yesterday, and was not molested on his way. The Evening Star has a dispatch denying that McCulloch was killed in the battle.

Passes are now required on all roads leading to Washington.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.

Mure, the bearer of rebel dispatches, is imprisoned at Ft. LaFayette.

A special Washington dispatch to the Tribune says 62 recusants of the 79th regiment will be sent to the fortress to work out their three years on the fortification.

Ex-Minister Faulkner has requested an interview with Secretary Cameron.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 15.

Provost marshal issued stringent orders against wearing concealed weapons by citizens, or giving away of any description of fire arms by gun makers or other dealers except by special permit.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 15—10½ P. M.

A messenger that arrived this evening reports that Gen. Sigel was encamped about three miles from Rolla, where there was good water, and would arrive at Rolla to-day, the 15th. He was in no danger. There had been no pursuit, and he was perfectly safe all the way. Owing to only one ferry boat being at the Gasconade river, considerable trouble and delay ensued in transporting the troops and beggage across.

A captain in Sigel's command, that has arrived, states that there were no signs of a pursuit, and none was expected when he left. An immense panic existed along the route from Springfield, and hundreds of the inhabitants, men, women and children had left their homes and were coming with Sigel's army. About six regiments were at Rolla when he left.

The messenger stated that during the first of the battle, a company of federal troops rushed into the enemy's camp and entered a tent where they found $7,000, which they secured, before being obliged to retreat.—He states that had the federals been two more regiments in number they would have been able to have pursued the enemy and effectually disperse them.

A train is expected here at 11 o'clock to-night, and will probably bring the body of Gen. Lyon. It is embalmed in a metallic coffin, which had been sent from Rolla by Col. Wyman for that purpose. The body will be at once sent on to Connecticut.

The city has been quiet to-day. A company of cavalry arrived from Adams county, Ill., and immediately marched to Col. Ellis' regiment at the barracks. No reinforcements were sent forward to-day.

Special Dispatch to the Chicago Times.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 15—10 A. M.

The report current yesterday that Hardee had reached Pilot Knob, proves to be a secession cheat upon the military authorities, to cause that to divert troops to that point and prevent the full reinforcement of Gen. Sigel.

Hardee is believed to be yet in the southwest, and may try to cut off Gen. Sigel.

The Missouri Democrat publishes this morning a list of one hundred and fifty killed and wounded in the recent battle near Springfield, in the Missouri first, Kansas first and second and Iowa first regiments, saying this is not more than one-fourth of the whole federal loss.

It was the Iowa first regiment that Gen. Lyon led to the charge when he was killed. That regiment gained great honor in the battle.

The Kansas regiments operated effectively by forming ambuscades. They would lie flat on the ground until the enemy approached closely, and then fire deadly volleys into their ranks.

The Illinois 14th, 15th and 16th regiments reached Rolla yesterday.

Gen. Lyon's body will be sent to Connecticut.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 15—12 P. M.

Mr. Dobbins, mail agent on the North Missouri railroad, had a son sixteen years old killed in the battle near Springfield.

Persons in that engagement think that Gen. Sigel's regiment suffered a heavier loss than any other. The enemy, after shooting down his artillery horses, made a rush upon his position with infantry and cavalry. He extricated himself without losing the prisoners previously taken.

The federal volunteers fought as well as the regulars, though the latter manœvered better and quicker.

The Union men generally formed ranks of two deep. The enemy often appeared in masses and squares, presenting a fair mark for our artillery, and their losses were heavy. They stood fire well, but retreated whenever Gen. Lyon's forces prepared for a bayonet charge. The battle is considered the fiercest and bloodiest ever fought in America.

The rumor that Gen. Sigel had arrived within three miles of Rolla is untrue, as no train has arrived from that direction to-night.

Special despatch to the Chicago Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15, 1861.

Capt. Craven of the Potomac flotilla, recently, at the request of Gen. Dix, went into a creek on the Virginia shore, lower Potomac, carrying a flag of truce, with a request to be permitted to bring off the family of a refugee. The disunionists there refused to permit the family to leave, on the ground that the man was a deserter from the Virginia militia.

Elmira is substituted for Pittsburg as a camp of rendezvous, and it is permitted to add other convenient places. Each is to be in charge of a regular officer.

Commander Craven advises Gen. McClellan to fortify the Maryland shore of the lower Potomac and encamp regiments at several points.

A letter from Great Savage Mountain indicates that the rebels may try to make an inroad into western Virginia by that route. The Ohio, Indiana and Maryland troops there are ready.

Major McMichael, son of the editor of Philadelphia North American, is appointed assistant adjutant general.

The son of Alexander Cummings of the New York World is appointed a first lieutenant.

Gen. McClellan's order, read to the 79th yesterday, was very severe. He says that causes of mutiny in their ranks were frivolous and groundless. Their course showed them wanting in the first virtue of a soldier—obedience; and occurring just at this time, it has raised the strongest suspicion of the most abject cowardice. Consequently their colors would be taken away, and restored only after good conduct in camp and battle should have proved their right to carry them. The regiment is now encamped, with others of Sickles' brigade, near the lunatic asylum.

Judge Wayne of Georgia, of the supreme court, has issued a writ of habeas corpus for one Stephens, of the Minnesota regiment. The question to be decided is whether soldiers originally three months' men, and who afterwards enlisted for the war, can be held.

Special despatch to the Chicago Tribune.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 15—11 P. M.

This city is all alive with the preparations for an active and vigorous campaign. Intelligence from Washington points to the acceptance of an indefinite number of troops from Illinois, the organization of which is to be left entirely to the direction of Gov. Yates. Already the quartermaster general has been clothed with authority to largely increase his facilities for the manufacture of ammunition, and to make additional contracts for clothing and equipments.

The troops continue to arrive from all parts of the state. There are now at Camp Butler 3,000 men.

General Prentiss passed through the city yesterday, en route for St. Louis, in accordance with the wishes of General Fremont.

Capt. Delano's company of Adams County Dragoons were ordered to move to St. Louis last night, and were promptly provided by Gens. Wood and Mather with outfits and transportation. The company is designed to serve with the command of Gen. Prentiss.

Brigadier General John A. McClernand arrived from the east to-day, and will immediately proceed to organize his brigade.—The relations between himself and Gov. Yates are of the most friendly character, and they will heartily co-operate in the great work of superintending the operations of Illinois in the present conflict.

Some 35 or 40 bales of blankets, en route from the east to St. Louis, and supposed to be contraband, were stopped to-day until orders from Gen. Fremont should be received permitting their delivery to the consignees—Field & Brothers.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 15.

The fleet of ten steamers which has been laid up fifteen miles below here for some time past was brought here to-day by order of Gen. Fremont, to prevent the possibility of their being taken by the secessionists.

Gen. Pope has about completed the appointment of the committee of safety in the counties of his department, according to special orders already telegraphed. Since the adoption of this plan for the preservation of property, acts of violence have materially diminished, and it is believed in a short time will entirely cease.

It is stated that some seven thousand rebel troops are approaching Ironton from south. The federal troops in that region are posted at Pilot Knob, Ironton and Arcadia, three villages which lie about two miles apart in a narrow valley, the entrance to which can be easily defended by artillery, and a flank movement is not apprehended in consequence of the impassible condition of the roads around the valley. Col. Blair arrived to-day.

CAIRO, Aug. 15.

The four regiments—11th, 17th, 18th and 19th—which left here to-day, are destined to Herculaneum, 20 miles below St. Louis, and at which point the Iron Mountain railroad leaves the river. They were called from here by Gen. Fremont.

There has been nothing heard from Pillow to-day. Scouts report that Jeff. Thompson's rebels have fallen back from Charleston to Sykeston, where they are fortifying. All the railroad bridges between Charleston and Sykeston have been burned by them.

Two of the gun-boats are gone down the river to-day on a reconnoitering expedition. Capt. Roger N. Stembel, U. S. N., arrived here to-night with thirty recruits for the boats.

The steamers Empress and Graham got in this afternoon with a large lot of mules, wagons, &c.

To-Day's Report.

MORNING DESPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15

Tribune's despatch.—Gen. Rosencranz is authorized to accept regiments from western Virginia, which he does so as fast as they are ready for service.

Gen. Sumner was ordered to-day to raise without delay, a column of 5,000 or 10,000 Californians, and march them into Texas and Arkansas. The despatches went by telegraph to Ft. Kearney, thence by pony express. Another order will soon be sent to California for a regiment of cavalry.

An order has gone to Europe for 15,000 more arms.

It is rumored that a rebel force is moving from Morfield to Great Savage mountain pass, to reinforce Gen. Wise. The troops which hold the pass, are ready for them.

The Tribune says the southern pirates are playing a desperate and bloody game. Our North Carolina correspondent this morning gives the statement of a British sailor named Ross, who had been impressed to serve as a gunner on board the Speed, by which it appears that on the 31st July, near Nag's Head, the pirates attacked and took possession of a British vessel, which they burned, after destroying the entire crew. Ross having refused to fight against his countrymen, was shot at and wounded by the captain of the Speed, and afterwards confined in irons. He escaped by the aid of a fellow sailor, who had also been impressed. Ross is endeavoring to make his way north and wishes to lay the subject before the British officials.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.

Herald's dispatch.—Major General Butler has been authorized to raise a division of 5,000 men in Massachusetts, and is to be granted leave of absence to superintend in person the organization of the division. Gen. Butler will have full power to thoroughly appoint the new division, providing it does not cost more in Massachusetts than it would cost here.

It is reported by passengers arrived to-night from the west, by way of Harper's Ferry, that Gen. Rosencranz, with a small command, is in a precarious position in a mountain gap in the neighborhood of Big Spring, and that a rebel force had cut him off from water.

Evidences of an advance of the enemy toward our lines are daily multiplying.

Yesterday a resident of Virginia, living near Claremont, five miles from Alexandria, reports the rebels at Brush Hill and Claremont. The efforts of the rebels to gather men into the secession fold have not been abandoned.

It was noticed some weeks ago that a considerable rebel force had been concentrated in the upper part of Accomac county, on the eastern shore of Virginia. It appears that there are about 150 or 200 armed rebels there.

Gen. Tilghman, who was deposed from his militia rank last spring, by Gov. Hicks, and subsequently restored by the state legislature, is organizing the disunionists in the lower counties of Maryland. He is about to proceed to Accomac to take command of the Virginia forces there, and march them up into the middle of the eastern shore of Maryland, as the nucleus for the formation of a rebel army there, which shall, if it can do nothing else, control the elections in the fall, so as to secure a disunion majority in the legislature and enable the secessionists to pass a secession ordinance, or perhaps to enforce an ordinance of secession that may be passed by the present legislature at its adjourned session.

World's dispatch.—The states of Kentucky and Tennessee have been constituted a separate military command, to be called the department of Cumberland, Brig. Gen. Robt. Anderson commanding.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.

The first new gun boat will be launched to-morrow; another next week and four others in fifteen days.

Thomas S. Seerill, a violent secessionist, was arrested on the arrival of the Persia, with £40,000 in Bank of England notes, the proceeds of a loan for the confederate states. Seerill is a native of New Orleans, about 50 years old, and very wealthy. A number of letters and important papers were also found upon him.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 16.

A messenger from Gen. Sigel arrived early this morning. He reports Gen. Sigel 15 miles this side of Lebanon, expecting to reach Rolla to-day. He had not been molested on the route. Gen. Lyon was buried on Col. Phelps' farm, near Springfield. It was reported that the rebels had entered Springfield and were encamped in and around the town. The messenger also states that the whole number of killed, wounded and missing on the federal side does not exceed 400; and that McCulloch and a number of rebel officers were killed.

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 16.

By a private despatch from Col. Starkweather, we learn that the First Wisconsin Regiment will be here to-morrow, and proceed from the depot to Camp Scott, their old camping ground, where they will probably be mustered out of service.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.

Special to Post.—Our foreign relations attract the attention of the government at present. The administration at all hazards will maintain its right to close the rebel ports. The question is now under discussion between our government and those of England and France, and it is believed that our right will be fully conceded.

The National Intelligencer has a theory that Ex-Minister Faulkner is not imprisoned because he intended to join the rebel army, but that he is held as hostage for Congressman Ely and Messrs. McGraw and Harris, non-combatants, now in the hands of the enemy.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.

A party of six men left the steamer Roseth yesterday, and landed at Mathews Point yesterday for the purpose of reconnoitering. They were fired on by a party of rebels, concealed in the brush, and four of them killed. The bodies of the dead seamen arrived at the navy yard to-day.

SYRACUSE, Aug. 16.

Mud Lock on the Oswego canal is repaired, and navigation resumed last night. Navigation on the Erie is uninterrupted.

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.

J. A. King, a catholic priest, was last eve taken into custody and conveyed to the detective police of New York, by a number of excited Germans, who alleged that he was a secessionist. They charged that he partook of lager beer with a number of volunteers and tried to induce them to desert their companies. He abused the government outrageously, contending that the southern confederacy ought to be recognized, and finally became so bold in his assertions as to enrage the Germans, and they at once arrested him. Their prisoner was detained for examination.

BOSTON, Aug. 16.

The British steamer Eastern State, from Yarmouth, Novia Scotia, which arrived this morning, brought four hhds. and 92 bbls. spirits of turpentine, and 31 bales of North Carolina cotton, which is presumed to have escaped the blockade, and was taken to Yarmouth, N. S. It is said the owner of the turpentine will clear 17,000 dollars.

FORT MONROE, Aug. 15.

The report that the rebels around Fox Hill have connected a wire with the telegraph from Old Point to Newport News, and thus obtained our despatches, is found to be entirely without foundaiion.

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 16.

A late New Orleans paper has the following: The board of underwriters, following the wake of the cotton factors of New Orleans, have passed a resolution of more than usual interest to steamboats. It is as follows:

Resolved, That no river insurance on cotton bound to this port, nor fire insurance on cotton in the city of New Orleans be taken until the blockade of the port is raised, and its free navigation resumed. Cotton on plantations may be insured against fire to the extent of three-fourths its value, provided it is stored in lots not exceeding one hundred and fifty bales, and the lots at three hundred feet apart.

The elephant, belonging to a troupe of traveling equestrians in France, called the Troupe Americaine, recently brooke loose and devoured such a mass of newly cut clover that it became dreadfully swollen and expired in a few hours.

CRITTENDEN'S AMENDMENT.—Mr. Crittenden has improved since the day in which he went about making compromises. He now goes for making war. At a speech at Columbus lately, he said of the war:

"We must meet it like men. It is not a war that is to be prosecuted for the sake of war, and ought to be conducted with none of the common barbarities of war. It must nevertheless, be prosecuted by no half way measures. My friends, we must gather the utmost strength of the country, and gird up the energies of our minds in this momentous contest. And let it be prosecuted only for the purpose that it ought to be carried on, and concluded for the restoration of our government and the Union.

* * * * * * *

It becomes, therefore, a duty to maintain this government and this magnificent land from the terrible calamity of disunion.—This I would aim by all the powers of my life to prevent. Hence it is that I have just come from voting millions of money and hundreds of thousand of men; and in order that the issue may be decided more speedily and our erring brethren united to us once more. For, fellow citizens, I believe we shall be re-united. And I have confidence in the belief that, instead of destroying or even weakening us, this war will make our Union stronger than ever before."

These are the latest and best of Mr. Crittenden's amendments.

BLOODY TRAGEDY.—The Nebraska City News has been furnished with the particulars of a most bloody tragedy that occurred on the 12th ultimo on Rock Creek, some one hundred and ten miles from that city. It smacks of frontier life all through:

One D. C. McCandless, a noted desperado, had occupied a station on the mail route from Leavenworth to Fort Kearney, and had sold out to the express company. After a time he got tired of his bargain, and endeavored to buy it back again, but the express company refused to sell. He thereupon threatened to take it by force. He had, it seems, organized a band of secessionists for the purpose of robbery and murder; and with the aid of two of the band, James Wood and James Gordon, made an attempt to regain the station and kill its occupants. On the 12th they attacked the station, and while McCandless attempted to effect an entrance, Wood and Gordon went in pursuit of a woman who happened to be outside. While pursuing her around the house, Mr. Heacox, who was inside, shot McCandless, killing him instantly. The two outside then made for the door, but were met by Heacox, who immediately shot down Gordon. Wood, finding the place rather hot, started to run; but when he had got about sixty yards from the house, a shot from Heacox brought him down also. Heacox used a navy revolver, and fired but three times, killing his man instantly each shot.

We learn that this McCandless has been a terror to the road for some time, and that he had banded some eight or ten men together to commit depredations on settlers and travelers, who were boasting of their rebellious attitude to the country.

TWO WAUKESHA BOYS POISONED—NARROW ESCAPE.—When the fifth regiment arrived at Baltimore, two of the Waukesha Union Guards, we learn, were poisoned by an old female fiend, and narrowly escaped losing their lives. One of the victims, Mr. Orlando Culver, writes the following particulars of the circumstances to his wife, in this village. He says:

When the regiment arrived here, (Baltimore,) John Doughty and myself, being unwell, were put into a car to wait for a carriage to carry us to the camp ground.—While waiting there, several of the citizens came round, and one lady, who seemed very enthusiastic in our cause, desired to get us food and drink. She did bring cakes and water. John ate one cake; I ate two and drank some water, and in about half an hour afterwards, was siezed with violent vomiting, cramps and pains. I was dangerously sick for about twelve hours, but by good medical treatment, am about all right again. My body was covered with large, hard lumps, which were very painful. John Doughty was also in a bad way, but not as sick as I was. The old rip, there is no doubt, designed to kill us.—Waukesha Democrat.

Whisky is not demonstrated to be so potent an agent in the harvest field in extreme hot weather, as many claim. A farmer in this county set four men to bind after a reaper, one of the hottest days of last week. Two of them used whisky, and would not work without it. The other two drank no whisky at all, but one of them used water sweetened slightly with molasses, with a smart sprinkling of ginger, while the other eschewed all such gimcracks, and fell back upon pure Adam's ale. For the first three hours the men kept well together, there being no apparent difference in their respective capacities for doing that kind of work. As Old Sol ascended the sky, his rays smote them with a power which drew the perspiration in streams down their faces and bodies. The men who used the whisky now began to flag, wipe their faces, and complain of the heat, ever and anon drawing a suspicious flask for a sip or two—for they were only moderate users of the article, but nevertheless believed it to be impossible to go through harvest without it—and finally, about 11 o'clock one of them left the field for a tree, used up by the heat and the fiery stimulus he had poured into his stomach; the other failed to appear after dinner. The remaining two went through the sweltering afternoon, with scarcely a breath of air on the stir, and performed a big day's work each. The one who drank the ginger was troubled with a severe headache near the close of the day. Not being subject at all to headache, he inferred that it might have been caused by the ginger, and omitted it the next day, when he found that he was not troubled with it again. Our friend says that when he sees whisky going into the harvest field that he is always very sure there will be only half the work done that there would be if it was kept out. Laborers addicted to the habit of stimulating with this miserable stuff, are generally the ones visited by coup de soleil.—Belvidere Standard.

THE NEW ORLEANS BLOCKADE.—Intelligence has been received that another privateer steamer, the McRea, from New Orleans, ran the blockade on the 30th of July. Letters have been received in this city from persons on the steamer Brooklyn, one of which we published a few days ago, stating that the privateer Sumter which has been making such havoc with our commerce, might easily have been captured when she left New Orleans, by the Brooklyn, if Capt. Poor, to the astonishment of the whole crew, had not ordered the chase to cease when they were within range, and were fast overhauling her. This is probably another case of the same kind. We have good reasons for believing that a traitor is in command of the Brooklyn who is playing into the hands of the enemy.

TAKING SHOT COOLLY.—In the late battle at Bull's Run, a soldier, around whom the cannon shot were flying pretty thick, on seeing one strike and bury itself in a bank near him, sprang to the hole it had scooped out, remarking, "Shoot away, you can't hit twice in the same place." At that instant another struck a few feet distant, almost covering the fellow with sand and gravel. Emerging from what had so nearly become his grave, he continued the unfinished sentence, "but you can come so pesky near it that the first hole is uncomfortable."

DIED.

In this city on the evening of the 15th, DANIEL, infant son of Wm. H. and Sarah M. Ebbetts, aged one year and five months.

The funeral will take place to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock. Services on the occasion to be attended at Trinity Church. The friends of the parents are invited to attend.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

By a resolution of the Board of Education of the city of Janesville, at a meeting held at their office in said city August 13th, 1861, it was resolved that the Public Schools of the city should be re-opened on MONDAY the 2d day of September next. Teachers in the employ of the board will please hold themselves in readiness to enter upon the discharge of their duties at that time.

au15d1w JAMES ARMSTRONG, Clerk.

VOTE OF THANKS.—The following resolutions are reported by the committee of excurtionists to Chicago last Tuesday. Mr. Pattison is well entitled to the thanks of every person who had the good fortune to be one of that party.

Resolved, That in the inception and preparation of the excursion last Tuesday, we recognise another evidence of the liberality with which the business of the C. & N. W. R. W. is conducted, and of the genial nature of Mr. Pattison, its agent.

Resolved, That the thanks of each excursionist are hereby tendered to Mr. Pattison, with the expression of the hope that there are "a few more of the same sort" in reserve.

DEPARTURE.—The Rev. Mr. Heckman left this city to-day to assume the pastoral charge of the Third Presbyterian Church in Indianopolis. Mr. Heckman has been a faithful laborer here, and in his departure for a more extended field of labor carries with him the regrets and good wishes of his congregation and the community in which he has been a resident.

RE-ISSUE OF A PATENT.—We notice in the Scientific American that a patent has been re-issued to Jefferson Nash, assignor to himself and A. K. Cutts, of this city, for their improvement in grain separators, which was patented Sept. 27, 1859. This is a very valuable improvement upon grain separators, which has been thoroughly tested in this country, and receives the approval of all interested in cleaning grain.

SUBSISTENCE OF THE REGIMENTS.—The Madison Journal says that in regard to the expense of subsisting the regiments at Madison, the companies are to be sworn into the U. S. service as they arrive, and Capt. McIntyre, of the U. S. A., provides for their subsistence at once, at the expense of the United States.

If we are not mistaken, the same story was told about the 5th and 6th regiments, and yet, according to the figures of the Journal itself, the state has paid $12,953.75 for the subsistence of those regiments—allowing 37½ cents per day for each man, while in Fond du Lac the men were better fed at 26 cents per day, and in Racine at about 19 cents.

Should anybody come to the conclusion that Madison, in quartering six of the eight regiments, and as the recipient of numerous other incidental or direct benefits, is a favored locality, we hardly think we shall enter into a dispute as to the correctness of the opinion.

AN ANCIENT DEED.—Mr. A. D. Wickham has left with us, prior to sending it to the State Historical Society, a deed issued by the state of New York to John Garnsey, dated August 8th, 1789, and signed by George Clinton, as governor of the state, and Robert Harper, deputy secretary. A plaster seal, 3½ inches in diameter, with an ornament on one side resembling the representation of the Grand Llama of Peru in the old geographies, and the other an iceberg is attached. The deed conveys 1000 acres of land on the Susquehannah river, reserving all gold and silver mines, and five acres of every hundred acres of the tract for highways.

This deed will constitute a valuable addition to the collection of curiosities in the cabinet of the society.

IMPORTANT TO OUR READERS.—It is with feelings of joy and gladness that we publish anything that will contribute to the pleasure, interest or health of our patrons. Therefore, with pleasure we say to our readers, one and all, use D. B. DeLand & Co.'s Chemical Saleratus. This saleratus is perfectly pure, healthy and of a uniform quality. Chemists and manufacturers very well know that it requires trouble and expense to make a perfectly pure article, while an inferior and impure article can be made with much less cost and trouble; while impure saleratus is very unhealthy, pure saleratus is harmless and renders the food healthy and nutritious. Knowing these facts, D. B. DeLand & Co. have been to trouble and expense in bringing this article before the public. This saleratus is manufactured by a new process, known only by this concern in this country and discovered by D. B. DeLand, in Europe, two years ago. This saleratus is put up in bright, red papers and you can get it of any respectable dealer in town, and at wholesale in Chicago and Milwaukee.

AN OBJECT OF CONTEMPT.—When a man goes about the streets whining because nobody will notice him, he is in a fair way to make himself the object of contempt he assumes himself to be.

A dentist named Blake, a resident of Litchfield, Conn., was compelled a few days since to pay respect to the American flag; subsequently meeting one of the committee who waited upon him, he took the liberty of caning him. The friends of the sufferer then rallied, and seizing Blake, ducked him in a horse trough, and then compelled him to kneel at the trough and take the oath of allegiance to the Union.

Pa, didn't you whip me for biting Tommy?

Yes, my child, you hurt him very much, indeed.

Well, then, pa, you ought to whip mama's music teacher, too, for he bit mama yesterday right on the mouth, and I know it hurt her, because she put her arms round his neck and tried to choke him.

Letter from George F. Saunders.

The following is a portion of a letter written to Wm. Eggleson by our lively friend, Saunders:

FORT COLCORAN, August 0th, 1861.

We are sweating away, as usual, and in middling health. Are my friends all well? If so, amen, and peace be with you all till I see you, which I hope will be soon, as I understand that when I have been six months in the service, I shall have a months furlough, if we get safely through the coming fight we are momentarily expecting. I think there will be an attack on Washington, Harper's Ferry, and the lower bridge. The enemy is reported to have 300,000 men. McLean is on guard to day, and if he is not sweating, there are no snakes in Ireland. He used to whistle "Dixie," but has now played out on that amusement. If you want to hear me sing, come down to Old Virginia, and you can get the worth of your money. Nobody but the darkies here, however, can do the subject full justice. Most of them are genuine ebonies, though there are some who are a little "mixed." They put on a good many airs, and then "go in" on their nerve; they begin to work, and then commence to sweat, and then "Lor Moses," it would do you good to see them! Such work, and such sweat! you can have no idea of what hot weather is until you see or try it.

We expected a fight last night. Cannons were cleaned, and everything put in order. Troops were on every corner. You should have been on Arlington Heights, and you would have wondered where so many men came from. Lieut. McLean gave us a little skirmishing, and if we do not die, we were as wet as rats.

A friend has just come into our camp and distributed one of the native productions of the country, in the shape of a mammoth watermelon. After storing away the cargo, for fear of the consequences, we took some ——— pepper sauce, and came out sound.

Some secession prisoners were taken last night. They look hard. We have heard from good authority that all the rebel troops subsist on is what they steal from Manasses to Richmond. They have taken the last morsel they can find in houses, and in many cases have turned families out of doors nearly naked. One gentlemen was in our camp the other day, a good Unionist. He came to our tent, and we know he is sound by the papers he has got from the government. He has been cuchered out of his home, and everything he has on earth. He left for fear of being drafted into the rebel army. His family are scattered, and he, noble looking as he is, is completely broken hearted. I pity him from the bottom of my heart. Such cases occur every day. The time is not far distant when those wretches who commit such outrages will realize there is a God in Israel.

I have seen enough to satisfy me that war is sickening. The sights of such a battle as we have been in are enough to chill the blood of any man who lives for better things. Cutting, tearing and smashing the features of a man into a shape that his nearest friends are not able to recognize him, except by a small strip of ribbon or some little memento given by some loved one, is truly terrible. During the late battle, one young man said to me—"Sergeant Saunders, you appear to have no troubles; you well know we are to have a terrible fight; hear those cannon. I think I can fight, but here is something; (pulling a picture from his breast pocket,) if I could only see her once more all would be well." I told him to pluck up courage, but I could see plainly that there was a heavy weight on his heart. He replied—"I would give everything I ever possessed to see my family once more and shake hands with them." He wiped away a tear, and the drum beat for a "double-quick" advance. He went into the assault, so all hands say, like a young Napoleon, and I heard that he was the first to be shot at the right of the brigade. I had no time to look after him, but I missed him and many others.

I occasionally look about through the different regiments, especially the New York Highlanders. They were near us in the battle. Archy is acquainted with a good many of the officers and men. The best they had was none too good for us. How many of them bit the dust the papers will tell you. Truly, this is the beginning of sorrows; but the end is not yet.

Give my love to Betty, and my small chaps. GEORGE. F. SAUNDERS.

We publish below a letter from Brigadier General Sherman to the Adjutant General of the U. S. army, recommending Lt. Col. Peck for an appointment in the army. The letter is a complete refutation of the charges which had their origin in jealousy, and which have been so industriously circulated by certain journals in this state.—Monroe Sentinel.

FORT CORCORAN, Aug. 2.

To the Adjutant General, Washington, D. C:

SIR:—H. W. Peck, late lieutenant colonel commanding the 2d regiment Wisconsin volunteers, tells me he is an applicant for a commission in the 5th artillery. I take pleasure in giving him this assurance, that from my knowledge of him during the past month in command of a volunteer regiment in camp and on the march, as well as under fire, I believe him to be well qualified and well entitled to the appointment he asks for.

I shall be well pleased to see his name announced as captain or first lieutenant 5th artillery.

I have the honor to be your obedient servant, W. T. SHERMAN, Brigadier General.

O, THE TYPES!—No amount of caution can prevent the occurrence of annoying blunders. The Springfield Republican of Wednesday contained a most absurd blunder, by which, in the report of Rev. Dr. Davis' address before the alumni at Williams College, a good man and a missionary, was consigned to a terrible fate. Rev. Gordon Hall was stated to have died in the "richness of sin," instead of the "interior of Asia."

A REMONSTRANCE.—A meeting of the German republicans was held yesterday, at Geser's saloon on East Water street, over which Mr. Neustadtl presided, at which a remonstrance was adopted against the appointment of Marcus Otterbourg as consul to Mexico, or to any other office in the government, with a resolution to forward said remonstrance to Secretary Seward.—Mil. Sentinel.

THE UNION AND THE REBEL FORCES IN NORTHWESTERN MISSOURI.—A respectable citizen of Knox county, Missouri, called on us yesterday, and gave us some information about affairs in that part of the state that is anything but encouraging to the Union inhabitants. He states that on Wednesday the 31st of July, a band of about 1,800 secessionists entered Edina, the capital of that county, at which were encamped between 300 and 500 Home Guards, but partially armed with shot-guns, pistols, &c., and with not exceeding three or four rounds of ammunition for each gun. The Home Guards, in view of the vast numbers of the rebels compared with their own, and of the great disparity in arms and ammunition, deemed it prudent to retire, as a collision would inevitably have resulted in the complete success of the rebels.

There is a number of companies and parts of companies of Home Guards now at Canton, who design forming a battalion or regiment, to go into active service as soon as arms and ammunition can be procured.—Deputations from the Home Guards have been sent to Gen's. Hurlbut, Pope and Fremont, and to the military commanders late at Keokuk, for the purpose of procuring a sufficient military force to disperse the rebels, or of obtaining arms and ammunition with which to defend themselves and protect their families and property, but with no success or encouragement whatever.

The rebels have had late accessions to their forces, numbering now not less than 4,000 effective men, most of them well mounted, with five fine field pieces—one nine-pounder and four six-pounders. They have four encampments—one in Edina, one about ten miles northeast, and one ten miles east. They are subsisting altogether upon what they can plunder from Union citizens, entering their houses, and fields, and taking whatever they are pleased to lay their hands on. They have taken a number of Union men as prisoners, one of whom, a respectable and prominent citizen, a captain of Home Guards, has been hung, if report be true. The house of our informant has been surrounded by them for the last two weeks, during which time he has neither seen nor heard from his family. A number of other Union citizens and their families are in the same condition.

Our informant was accompanied to this city by four or five other citizens of Missouri, all officers of Home Guards, who come here for the purpose of procuring arms and ammunition, but with what success we have not yet learned. He states that a number of families have left their homes and all they possess, except what they could take with them, to seek locations in Iowa and Illinois, and that many others would do likewise if they could get away.

We have no means of knowing the disposition or intention of any of our military authorities whose jurisdiction extends over northern Missouri, but there can be no doubt of the necessity of the immediate adoption of measures for the protection of its inhabitants from the lawless ravages of rebel bands, and their utter annihilation from the face of the earth, if such a hopeful result is practicable.—Quincy Herald, August 13th.

DEATH OF BENJAMIN CAMPBELL.—A letter from a member of the 6th Wisconsin regiment, dated Baltimore, Aug. 6th, and published in the Milwaukee Wisconsin on the 8th, gives the following account of the sudden death of Benjamin Campbell, the orderly sergeant of the regiment, while marching through the city of Baltimore:

"On marching from the depot to the camp, Orderly Sergeant Campbell fell out of the ranks unobserved, and went to the Peabody House for lodging. In the hurry of preparing the encampment he was not missed, until word was sent to the camp that he was found dead in his bed. From careful inquiry, he must have reached the house at nearly the same time the regiment passed, and from the appearance of the body, died immediately after lying down. A coroner's inquest was held, whose verdict was, 'death caused by physical exhaustion.' His body was escorted by his comrades to Green Mount cemetery, placed in the vault, and will to-day be buried by his company."

Sergeant Campbell for some years lived in this city, but more recently his residence has been at Columbus. He enlisted as a Wisconsin volunteer, became orderly sergeant of the sixth regiment, was mustered into the United States service, and has met his fate while on his way to the field of martial and patriotic duty, from the poisonous shaft of an enemy as sure and deadly, though it may be more slow, as any ever hurled by the fiercest mortal enemy.—Watertown Democrat.

GUNS FOR EAST TENNESSEE.—A correspondent from Cynthiana informs us that 6,000 stand of arms passed over the Covington and Lexington railroad on August 8th. They are intended for the east Tennessceans, who adhere to the federal government.—Louisville Courier.

ON the first day of August in every year it is usual for us to get up our closing sale for the season, and having been induced to purchase very largely owing to the low price of imported goods in the early part of the summer, it will be necessary for us, in order to make room for our fall purchases, to dispose of at least

$20,000 Worth of Goods

THIRTY DAYS.

Our entire stock of

PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

By a resolution of the Board of Education of the city of Janesville, at a meeting held at their office in said city August 13th, 1861, it was resolved that the Public Schools of the city should be re-opened on MONDAY the 2d day of September next. Teachers in the employ of the board will please hold themselves in readiness to enter upon the discharge of their duties at that time.

au15d1w JAMES ARMSTRONG, Clerk.

VOTE OF THANKS.—The following resolutions are reported by the committee of excursionists to Chicago last Tuesday. Mr. Pattison is well entitled to the thanks of every person who had the good fortune to be one of that party.

Resolved, That in the inception and preparation of the excursion last Tuesday, we recognise another evidence of the liberality with which the business of the C. & N. W. R. W. is conducted, and of the genial nature of Mr. Pattison, its agent.

Resolved, That the thanks of each excursionist are hereby tendered to Mr. Pattison, with the expression of the hope that there are "a few more of the same sort" in reserve.

DEPARTURE.—The Rev. Mr. Heckman left this city to-day to assume the pastoral charge of the Third Presbyterian Church in Indianopolis. Mr. Heckman has been a faithful laborer here, and in his departure for a more extended field of labor carries with him the regrets and good wishes of his congregation and the community in which he has been a resident.

RE-ISSUE OF A PATENT.—We notice in the Scientific American that a patent has been re-issued to Jefferson Nash, assignor to himself and A. K. Cutts, of this city, for their improvement in grain separators, which was patented Sept. 27, 1859. This is a very valuable improvement upon grain separators, which has been thoroughly tested in this country, and receives the approval of all interested in cleaning grain.

SUBSISTENCE OF THE REGIMENTS.—The Madison Journal says that in regard to the expense of subsisting the regiments at Madison, the companies are to be sworn into the U. S. service as they arrive, and Capt. McIntyre, of the U. S. A., provides for their subsistence at once, at the expense of the United States.

If we are not mistaken, the same story was told about the 5th and 6th regiments, and yet, according to the figures of the Journal itself, the state has paid $12,953.75 for the subsistence of those regiments—allowing 37½ cents per day for each man, while in Fond du Lac the men were better fed at 26 cents per day, and in Racine at about 19 cents.

Should anybody come to the conclusion that Madison, in quartering six of the eight regiments, and as the recipient of numerous other incidental or direct benefits, is a favored locality, we hardly think we shall enter into a dispute as to the correctness of the opinion.

AN ANCIENT DEED.—Mr. A. D. Wickham has left with us, prior to sending it to the State Historical Society, a deed issued by the state of New York to John Garnsey, dated August 8th, 1789, and signed by George Clinton, as governor of the state, and Robert Harper, deputy secretary. A plaster seal, 3½ inches in diameter, with an ornament on one side resembling the representation of the Grand Llama of Peru in the old geographies, and the other an iceberg is attached. The deed conveys 1000 acres of land on the Susquehannah river, reserving all gold and silver mines, and five acres of every hundred acres of the tract for highways.

This deed will constitute a valuable addition to the collection of curiosities in the cabinet of the society.

IMPORTANT TO OUR READERS.—It is with feelings of joy and gladness that we publish anything that will contribute to the pleasure, interest or health of our patrons. Therefore, with pleasure we say to our readers, one and all, use D. B. DeLand & Co.'s Chemical Salaratus. This saleratus is perfectly pure, healthy and of a uniform quality. Chemists and manufacturers very well know that it requires trouble and expense to make a perfectly pure article, while an inferior and impure article can be made with much less cost and trouble; while impure saleratus is very unhealthy, pure saleratus is harmless and renders the food healthy and nutritious. Knowing these facts, D. B. DeLand & Co. have been to trouble and expense in bringing this article before the public. This saleratus is manufactured by a new process, known only by this concern in this country and discovered by D. B. DeLeland, in Europe, two years ago. This saleratus is put up in bright, red papers and you can get it of any respectable dealer in town, and at wholesale in Chicago and Milwaukee.

AN OBJECT OF CONTEMPT.—When a man goes about the streets whining because nobody will notice him, he is in a fair way to make himself the object of contempt he assumes himself to be.

A dentist named Blake, a resident of Litchfield, Conn., was compelled a few days since to pay respect to the American flag; subsequently meeting one of the committee who waited upon him, he took the liberty of caning him. The friends of the sufferer then rallied, and seizing Blake, ducked him in a horse trough, and then compelled him to kneel at the trough and take the oath of allegiance to the Union.

Pa, didn't you whip me for biting Tommy?

Yes, my child, you hurt him very much, indeed.

Well, then, pa, you ought to whip mama's music teacher, too, for he bit mama yesterday right on the mouth, and I know it hurt her, because she put her arms round his neck and tried to choke him.

Letter from George F. Saunders.

FORT CORCORAN, August 9th, 1861.

We are sweating away, as usual, and in middling health. Are my friends all well? If so, amen, and peace be with you all till I see you, which I hope will be soon, as I understand that when I have been six months in the service, I shall have a months furlough, if we get safely through the coming fight we are momentarily expecting. I think there will be an attack on Washington, Harper's Ferry, and the lower bridge. The enemy is reported to have 300,000 men. McLean is on guard to day, and if he is not sweating, there are no snakes in Ireland. He used to whistle "Dixie," but has now played out on that amusement. If you want to hear me sing, come down to Old Virginia, and you can get the worth of your money. Nobody but the darkies here, however, can do the subject full justice. Most of them are genuine ebonies, though there are some who are a little "mixed." They put on a good many airs, and then "go in" on their nerve; they begin to work, and then commence to sweat, and then "Lor Moses," it would do you good to see them! Such work, and such sweat! you can have no idea of what hot weather is until you see or try it.

We expected a fight last night. Cannons were cleaned, and everything put in order. Troops were on every corner. You should have been on Arlington Heights, and you would have wondered where so many men came from. Lieut. McLean gave us a little skirmishing, and if we do not die, we were as wet as rats.

A friend has just come into our camp and distributed one of the native productions of the country, in the shape of a mammoth watermelon. After storing away the cargo, for fear of the consequences, we took some ——— pepper sauce, and came out sound.

Some secession prisoners were taken last night. They look hard. We have heard from good authority that all the rebel troops subsist on is what they steal from Manassas to Richmond. They have taken the last morsel they can find in houses, and in many cases have turned families out of doors nearly naked. One gentlemen was in our camp the other day, a good Unionist. He came to our tent, and we know he is sound by the papers he has got from the government. He has been ouchered out of his home, and everything he has on earth. He left for fear of being drafted into the rebel army. His family are scattered, and he, noble looking as he is, is completely broken hearted. I pity him from the bottom of my heart. Such cases occur every day. The time is not far distant when those wretches who commit such outrages will realize there is a God in Israel.

I have seen enough to satisfy me that war is sickening. The sights of such a battle as we have been in are enough to chill the blood of any man who lives for better things. Cutting, tearing and smashing the features of a man into a shape that his nearest friends are not able to recognize him, except by a small strip of ribbon or some little memento given by some loved one, is truly terrible. During the late battle, one young man said to me—"Sergeant Saunders, you appear to have no troubles; you well know we are to have a terrible fight; hear those cannon. I think I can fight, but here is something; (pulling a picture from his breast pocket,) if I could only see her once more all would be well." I told him to pluck up courage, but I could see plainly that there was a heavy weight on his heart. He replied—"I would give everything I ever possessed to see my family once more and shake hands with them." He wiped away a tear, and the drum beat for a "double-quick" advance. He went into the assault, so all hands say, like a young Napoleon, and I heard that he was the first to be shot at the right of the brigade. I had no time to look after him, but I missed him and many others.

I occasionally look about through the different regiments, especially the New York Highlanders. They were near us in the battle. Archy is acquainted with a good many of the officers and men. The best they had was none too good for us. How many of them bit the dust the papers will tell you. Truly, this is the beginning of sorrows; but the end is not yet.

Give my love to Betty, and my small chaps. GEORGE. F. SAUNDERS.

We publish below a letter from Brigadier General Sherman to the Adjutant General of the U. S. army, recommending Lt. Col. Peck for an appointment in the army. The letter is a complete refutation of the charges which had their origin in jealousy, and which have been so industriously circulated by certain journals in this state.—Monroe Sentinel.

FORT CORCORAN, Aug. 2.

To the Adjutant General, Washington, D. C.:

SIR:—H. W. Peck, late lieutenant colonel commanding the 2d regiment Wisconsin volunteers, tells me he is an applicant for a commission in the 5th artillery. I take pleasure in giving him this assurance, that from my knowledge of him during the past month in command of a volunteer regiment in camp and on the march, as well as under fire, I believe him to be well qualified and well entitled to the appointment he asks for.

I shall be well pleased to see his name announced as captain or first lieutenant 5th artillery.

I have the honor to be your obedient servant, W. T. SHERMAN, Brigadier General.

O, THE TYPES!—No amount of caution can prevent the occurrence of annoying blunders. The Springfield Republican of Wednesday contained a most absurd blunder, by which, in the report of Rev. Dr. Davis' address before the alumni at Williams College, a good man and a missionary, was consigned to a terrible fate. Rev. Gordon Hall was stated to have died in the "richness of sin," instead of the "interior of Asia."

A REMONSTANCE.—A meeting of the German republicans was held yesterday, at Geser's saloon on East Water street, over which Mr. Neustadtl presided, at which a remonstrance was adopted against the appointment of Marcus Otterbourg as consul to Mexico, or to any other office in the government, with a resolution to forward said remonstrance to Secretary Seward.—Mil. Sentinel.

THE UNION AND THE REBEL FORCES IN NORTHWESTERN MISSOURI.—A respectable citizen of Knox county, Missouri, called on us yesterday, and gave us some information about affairs in that part of the state that is anything but encouraging to the Union inhabitants. He states that on Wednesday the 31st of July, a band of about 1,800 secessionists entered Edina, the capital of that county, at which were encamped between 300 and 500 Home Guards, but partially armed with shot-guns, pistols, &c., and with not exceeding three or four rounds of ammunition for each gun. The Home Guards, in view of the vast numbers of the rebels compared with their own, and of the great disparity in arms and ammunition, deemed it prudent to retire, as a collision would inevitably have resulted in the complete success of the rebels.

There is a number of companies and parts of companies of Home Guards now at Canton, who design forming a battalion or regiment, to go into active service as soon as arms and ammunition can be procured.—Deputations from the Home Guards have been sent to Gen's. Hurlbut, Pope and Fremont, and to the military commanders late at Keokuk, for the purpose of procuring a sufficient military force to disperse the rebels, or of obtaining arms and ammunition with which to defend themselves and protect their families and property, but with no success or encouragement whatever.

The rebels have had late accessions to their forces, numbering now not less than 4,000 effective men, most of them well mounted, with five fine field pieces—one nine-pounder and four six-pounders. They have four encampments—one in Edina, one about ten miles northeast, and one ten miles east. They are subsisting altogether upon what they can plander from Union citizens, entering their houses, and fields, and taking whatever they are pleased to lay their hands on. They have taken a number of Union men as prisoners, one of whom, a respectable and prominent citizen, a captain of Home Guards, has been hung, if report be true. The house of our informant has been surrounded by them for the last two weeks, during which time he has neither seen nor heard from his family. A number of other Union citizens and their families are in the same condition.

Our informant was accompanied to this city by four or five other citizens of Missouri, all officers of Home Guards, who come here for the purpose of procuring arms and ammunition, but with what success we have not yet learned. He states that a number of families have left their homes and all they possess, except what they could take with them, to seek locations in Iowa and Illinois, and that many others would do likewise if they could get away.

We have no means of knowing the disposition or intention of any of our military authorities whose jurisdiction extends over northern Missouri, but there can be no doubt of the necessity of the immediate adoption of measures for the protection of its inhabitants from the lawless ravages of rebel bands, and their utter annihilation from the face of the earth, if such a hopeful result is practicable.—Quincy Herald, August 13th.

DEATH OF BENJAMIN CAMPBELL.—A letter from a member of the 6th Wisconsin regiment, dated Baltimore, Aug. 6th, and published in the Milwaukee Wisconsin on the 8th, gives the following account of the sudden death of Benjamin Campbell, the orderly sergeant of the regiment, while marching through the city of Baltimore:

"On marching from the depot to the camp, Orderly Sergeant Campbell fell out of the ranks unobserved, and went to the Peabody House for lodging. In the hurry of preparing the encampment he was not missed, until word was sent to the camp that he was found dead in his bed. From careful inquiry, he must have reached the house at nearly the same time the regiment passed, and from the appearance of the body, died immediately after lying down. A coroner's inquest was held, whose verdict was, 'death caused by physical exhaustion.' His body was escorted by his comrades to Green Mount cemetery, placed in the vault, and will to-day be buried by his company."

Sergeant Campbell for some years lived in this city, but more recently his residence has been at Columbus. He enlisted as a Wisconsin volunteer, became orderly sergeant of the sixth regiment, was mustered into the United States service, and has met his fate while on his way to the field of martial and patriotic duty, from the poisonous shaft of an enemy as sure and deadly, though it may be more slow, as any ever hurled by the fiercest mortal enemy.—Watertown Democrat.

GUNS FOR EAST TENNESSEE.—A correspondent from Cynthiana informs us that 5,000 stand of arms passed over the Covington and Lexington railroad on August 8th. They are intended for the east Tennesseeans, who adhere to the federal government.—Louisville Courier.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,

CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

This above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

DAILY GAZETTE.

From the New York Tribune, Aug. 10.
A Salt Water Story.

In the County of Clare, Ireland, lives a respectable, well-to-do family of the name of Dockay. The family is not extensive, but comprises among its members a dark-haired, black-eyed, plump young lady, not yet sixteen, named Bridget Dockay. About four years ago, when Bridget was but little over twelve years of age, she made the acquaintance of a dashing young sailor, and speedily became enamored of his blue shirt and wide turnover collar, to say nothing of his pleasant face and jovial spirit. The sailor-boy was also captivated with the juvenile Bridget, and their childish love was blissfully indulged until one unlucky day the parients of the lovely maiden awoke to a realizing sense of the inevitable tendency of affairs, and took measures accordingly. Believing Bridget to be too young and inexperienced to have a lover, they took steps to get rid of him, telling him that he had better wait a year or two before launching upon the broad sea of matrimony; they gave him an outfit, and induced him to go upon another voyage, hoping that time and absence would cure the young lady of her folly. For a few months letters from the absent lover reached Bridget regularly, but suddenly they ceased altogether, which Bridget attributed to an unfair interposition on the part of her papa. Suspense was gradually devouring the little miss, and, having imbibed a love of adventure from her briny lover, she resolved to seek him the wide world over. So Bridget assumed the garb of a sailor, and one night, when her parients were sound asleep, quietly stole away from her home, without once stopping to say good-by. Proceeding on foot, with now and then a "lift" from some good-natured teamster, she journeyed to Liverpool. Arriving there, Bridget, disguised as a sailor, frequented the docks for several days, and eventually succeeded in shipping, under the assumed name of Henry Johnson, as cabin-boy on board an American passenger ship. Faithfully she performed all the duties required of her on the passage, her true character never once being suspected. Reaching New York, she was regularly discharged, and, coming ashore, sought high and low, throughout those places where sailors most do congregate, hoping to encounter her truant lover. Her search was fruitless, and, in despair, the bold-hearted damsel shipped on board another vessel, bound for a foreign port. This time she went before-the-mast as a true-blue sailor, in which capacity she gave entire satisfaction to both officers and crew, no one of whom suspected that the stout-built, chubby, hardy-fisted, undersized boy was a forsaken maiden searching in the forecastle for her sailor-lover. For three years and a half Bridget kept up this disguise, crossing the ocean five times in various ships, and visiting also several ports in Spain and other foreign lands.

A few days since Bridget arrived once more in New York, and, being discharged, put up at a sailors boarding house in Water street. On Thursday evening Bridget was "cruising" about the city in company with several other sailors, and at last strayed into a drinking saloon. Here the disguised maiden invited her friends to "take a nip," which of course they cheerfully did, at her expense. Other drinks were then called for, and, after they had been disposed of, the men were ungenerous enough to insist that Bridget, who appeared to have plenty of money, should foot the whole bill. To this she objected, and was, in consequence, handled rather roughly. During the melee which ensued, one of the sailors struck Bridget just "above the belt," and immediately exclaimed, "My God! it's a woman!" Thereupon Bridget hitched up her pantaloons and took to her heels, never slacking her pace till she was snugly ensconced in her own boarding house. Still she is not safe, for a policeman of the fourth ward, hearing of the trouble in the saloon, and having learned the facts of the case, proceeded to the boarding house, and took Bridget into custody. She was conveyed to the station house, where she unbosomed herself, relating, in detail, the adventures of her life. On the following morning she was taken before Justice Osborn, at the Toombs, who transferred her to the care of Miss Foster, matron of that institution, who soon arrayed her in the more becoming, though less convenient garments of her sex. Bridget has made up her mind to abandon the sea forever, now that she has been discovered, and will seek a situation in some benevolent family.

HAMPTON.—The village of Hampton was situated on the left bank of the James river, about two miles from its entrance into the Chesapeake Bay, ninety-six miles southeast of Richmond, and was the capital of Elizabeth City county, Virginia. The part of the estuary of the James river situated between this town and Norfolk is called Hampton Roads. Hampton was an old town, having been settled in 1705, possessing much historic interest, and has been the birthplace of several distinguished naval officers. Its late importance was derived principally from its proximity to Fortress Monroe and Fort Calhoun. The former, in addition to its other sources of expenditure, has prior to the breaking out of the war and its occupation by Union troops, been one of the most fashionable places of resort in the south. The beach in the vicinity affords excellent bathing ground, and was thronged during the summer months with the wealthy and fashionable, and by some invalids, assembled there from Virginia, Maryland and other southern states. Hampton was two miles and a half distant from Fortress Monroe, and has been a flourishing town.

The oyster business formed one of the staples; hundreds of men coming there to catch and plant the bivalves, which were, in many instances, transplanted on northern beaches, and found a ready sale in our markets. Before the rebellion, Hampton numbered about two thousand inhabitants. Among the attractions in the place, were the military academy, five churches, several hotels, and numerous stores.

What a desolation it now presents. One hundred and fifty-six years were consumed in building up this place, and the labors of a century and a half are swept away in a few hours. Such, however, are the stern realities of war.—New York Herald, 10th.

TESTIMONIAL.
To Whom it May Concern:
I AM now over 60 years of age. Three years since I became blind from Cataract in both eyes. Soon after I became blind an attempt to restore my sight by an operation was made in this city, which was unsuccessful. Hearing of the reputation of Dr. Folsom, as a skillful oculist, I was induced to consult him, though with very little hopes of relief. The doctor proposed an operation, to which I consented, which resulted in almost Perfect Restoration of Sight to one eye. He afterwards performed an operation on the other eye with success. I am now enjoying the inestimable blessing of good vision, and a much better general state of health than before. THOS. VAUGHN.

Republican State Convention.

A Republican State Convention will be held at the Capital, in the city of Madison, at 12 o'clock M., on WEDNESDAY, the 25th day of September next, for the purpose of nominating candidates for state officers.

Each assembly district, under the new apportionment, will be entitled to two delegates in the convention.

The committee recommend that the primary meetings for the selection of delegates be held on or before the 14th day of September, and that the district committees issue early calls for such meetings, that the people may be thoroughly notified, and choose delegates who fairly reflect their wishes.

HORACE RUBLEE,
Chairman State Republican Central Com.
Madison, August 12, 1861.

HONORABLE TESTIMONY.—Gov. Randall has returned to Madison, and the Journal says that he gives the most flattering account of the bravery of the men of the 2d Wisconsin regiment, in the late battle, and since. They occupy a proud position in the estimation of military men in and about Washington. Gen. Sherman, under whose command they fought at the battle of Bull's Run, speaks of them in the most complimentary manner. A few days ago, Gen. Sherman was desirous of having two hundred picked men, for the performance of some special service with him, and after looking through his brigade, he took the entire number from the Wisconsin second. This is something more substantial than a mere compliment of words. It is a practical illustration of confidence, of an unmistakable character. This regiment stands among the first of all the troops about Washington. It must be gratifying to every citizen of Wisconsin to learn that our state is represented in the war by such brave and patriotic men. All our regiments are receiving the same exalted position with the second, wherever they are seen.

MILITARY MATTERS.—The Lodi Guards have arrived at Camp Randall, and the Marquette Sharpshooters are expected to-day.

The governor has commissioned Chas. A. Hamilton, of Milwaukee, as the major of the 7th regiment. Mr. Hamilton is a lawyer by profession and has been for some years a resident of Milwaukee.

George Robbins, of Dane county, is appointed lieut. colonel of the 8th regiment. He is a graduate of the Vermont Military School, under the charge of Capt. Partridge.

BERDAN'S SHARP SHOOTERS.—We are glad to see that Col. Berdan's success in raising his regiment of sharp-shooters has been so great, that he is now likely to organize three regiments instead of one. Ten companies are now ready, with a hundred men in each; and every man has been put to the test, and has made the required "string," which is ten consecutive shots at six hundred feet distance, averaging not more than five inches from the centre of the target. The governors of thirteen loyal states have agreed to furnish $10,000 each to equip the men; Col. F. P. Blair, Jr., has privately become responsible for a like amount, and a citizen of Kentucky has subscribed the same.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.—The democratic central committee have issued a call for a democratic state convention to meet at the Capitol on Wednesday, the 2d day of October next.

The call invites all electors to participate in the election of delegates who "are opposed to the sectional platform and policy of the republican party."

FOR CAIRO.—Forty cases of eight-inch grape shot; 48 boxes of cannister for thirty two pounders; 420 boxes of shell for thirty-two pounders; 500 boxes of eight-inch shell; 40 boxes of grape for thirty-two pounders; and 351 boxes of munitions of war, passed through Cincinnati on Monday night, destined for Cairo.

The United States marshal sold at public auction in Cincinnati, as confiscated goods seized on their transit south, 18 pairs of shoes at 80 cents per pair, 12 pairs of men's boots for $26, 167 copies of Gelham's manual at 40 cents each, and two mowing machine blades for $5.

FOR THE GUN BOATS.—A party of twenty-five men, and the following officers—Captoins Rogers and Stemble, and Masters Sebastian, Stemble and Kerny—have left Cincinnati for Lawrenceburg, where they will take the railroad for Cairo for gunboat service.

ARRIVAL OF THE FIRST.—A private dispatch received in this city yesterday afternoon stated that the Wisconsin First left Pittsburg yesterday afternoon, to return by the way of Cleveland, Detroit and Grand Haven. If such is the case, the regiment will arrive here Saturday morning between 11 and 12 o'clock.

The Fort Wayne road had the contract for returning the troops, but owing to the water carrying away one or two culverts east of Alliance, the route was changed.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

It is said that Judge Wayne, of the United States supreme court, though a citizen of Georgia, is now in Washington for the purpose of taking his accustomed seat upon the bench.

Poisoned bulletts were used by the rebels at the battle of Rich Mountain.

BY TELEGRAPH.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,
Office in Union Passenger Depot.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.

It is said that Judge Garrison made formal application to Gen. Duryea to ascertain what force could be had in Kings county to execute a writ of habeas corpus in the case of the Baltimore police commissioners. Duryea replied about 1,400 but the company was in possession of no artillery sufficiently powerful to make any impression on the walls of Fort LaFayette. It would require between 5,000 and 10,000 men to take them. So the matter rests for the present.

Judge Harrison, of Brooklyn, issued a writ of habeas corpus on application of Col. Jack, in behalf of about 150 United States troops at Fort Hamilton, surrendered by Gen. Twiggs, and released upon parole. Their counsel has written to the secretary of war requesting that the government allow the execution of the writ, as it will save the necessity of even indirectly recognizing the legality of the obligation which was imposed on the men by the rebels.

Geo. N. Sanders, late navy agent here, is a defaulter to the amount of $21,000. A process is issued against his sureties, R. J. Walker and Zeno Schedder.

Washington specials say it is understood that Secretary Seward intends informing Lord Lyons that British subjects are engaged in furnishing aid to the rebels in direct violation of the Queen's proclamation.

The Commercial has information that Gen. Pillow broke up the camp at New Madrid Friday precipitately, and moved back to Randolph. Seven steamers were seized at Memphis on Thursday and went to New Madrid, bringing Pillow's command back, arriving Friday noon during the intermediate time. The passengers were detained at Memphis and suffered severely. The movement is supposed to be on account of the active preparations of Fremont at Cairo.

Special to Post.—It is reported that evidence has been discovered showing that when Jeff. Davis resigned his seat in the United States senate, he made out a list of the men who were to be made officers in the rebel army.

Mr. Maynard, of Tennessee, arrived here yesterday, and was not molested on his way. The Evening Star has a dispatch denying that McCulloch was killed in the battle.

Passes are now required on all roads leading to Washington.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.

Mure, the bearer of rebel dispatches, is imprisoned at Ft. LaFayette.

A special Washington dispatch to the Tribune says 62 recusants of the 79th regiment will be sent to the fortress to work out their three years on the fortification.

Ex-Minister Faulkner has requested an interview with Secretary Cameron.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 15.

Provost marshal issued stringent orders against wearing concealed weapons by citizens, or giving away of any description of fire arms by gun makers or other dealers except by special permit.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 15—10½ P. M.

A messenger that arrived this evening reports that Gen. Sigel was encamped about three miles from Rolla, where there was good water, and would arrive at Rolla today, the 15th. He was in no danger. There had been no pursuit, and he was perfectly safe all the way. Owing to only one ferry boat being at the Gasconade river, considerable trouble and delay ensued in transporting the troops and beggage across.

A captain in Sigel's command, that has arrived, states that there were no signs of a pursuit, and none was expected when he left. An immense panic existed along the route from Springfield, and hundreds of the inhabitants, men, women and children had left their homes and were coming with Sigel's army. About six regiments were at Rolla when he left.

The messenger stated that during the first of the battle, a company of federal troops rushed into the enemy's camp and entered a tent where they found $7,000, which they secured, before being obliged to retreat.—He states that had the federals been two more regiments in number they would have been able to have pursued the enemy and effectually disperse them.

A train is expected here at 11 o'clock to-night, and will probably bring the body of Gen. Lyon. It is embalmed in a metallic coffin, which had been sent from Rolla by Col. Wyman for that purpose. The body will be at once sent on to Connecticut.

The city has been quiet to-day. A company of cavalry arrived from Adams county, Ill., and immediately marched to Col. Ellis' regiment at the barracks. No reinforcements were sent forward to-day.

Special Dispatch to the Chicago Times.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 15—10 A. M.

The report current yesterday that Hardee had reached Pilot Knob, proves to be a secession cheat upon the military authorities, to cause that to divert troops to that point and prevent the full reinforcement of Gen. Sigel.

Hardee is believed to be yet in the southwest, and may try to cut off Gen. Sigel.

The Missouri Democrat publishes this morning a list of one hundred and fifty killed and wounded in the recent battle near Springfield, in the Missouri first, Kansas first and second and Iowa first regiments, saying this is not more than one-fourth of the whole federal loss.

It was the Iowa first regiment that Gen. Lyon led to the charge when he was killed. That regiment gained great honor in the battle.

The Kansas regiments operated effectively by forming ambuscades. They would lie flat on the ground until the enemy approached closely, and then fire deadly volleys into their ranks.

The Illinois 14th, 15th and 16th regiments reached Rolla yesterday.

Gen. Lyon's body will be sent to Connecticut.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 15—12 P. M.

Mr. Dobbins, mail agent on the North Missouri railroad, had a son sixteen years old killed in the battle near Springfield.

Persons in that engagement think that Gen. Sigel's regiment suffered a heavier loss than any other. The enemy, after shooting down his artillery horses, made a rush upon his position with infantry and cavalry. He extricated himself without losing the prisoners previously taken.

The federal volunteers fought as well as the regulars, though the latter manœvered better and quicker.

The Union men generally formed ranks of two deep. The enemy often appeared in masses and squares, presenting a fair mark for our artillery, and their losses were heavy. They stood fire well, but retreated whenever Gen. Lyon's forces prepared for a bayonet charge. The battle is considered the fiercest and bloodiest ever fought in America.

The rumor that Gen. Sigel had arrived within three miles of Rolla is untrue, as no train has arrived from that direction to-night.

Special despatch to the Chicago Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15, 1861.

Capt. Craven of the Potomac flotilla, recently, at the request of Gen. Dix, went into a creek on the Virginia shore, lower Potomac, carrying a flag of truce, with a request to be permitted to bring off the family of a refugee. The disunionists there refused to permit the family to leave, on the ground that the man was a deserter from the Virginia militia.

Elmira is substituted for Pittsburg as a camp of rendezvous, and it is permitted to add other convenient places. Each is to be in charge of a regular officer.

Commander Craven advises Gen. McClellan to fortify the Maryland shore of the lower Potomac and encamp regiments at several points.

A letter from Great Savage Mountain indicates that the rebels may try to make an inroad into western Virginia by that route. The Ohio, Indiana and Maryland troops there are ready.

Major McMichael, son of the editor of Philadelphia North American, is appointed assistant adjutant general.

The son of Alexander Cummings of the New York World is appointed a first lieutenant.

Gen. McClellan's order, read to the 79th yesterday, was very severe. He says that causes of mutiny in their ranks were frivolous and groundless. Their course showed them wanting in the first virtue of a soldier —obedience; and occurring just at this time, it has raised the strongest suspicion of the most abject cowardice. Consequently their colors would be taken away, and restored only after good conduct in camp and battle should have proved their right to carry them. The regiment is now encamped, with others of Sickles' brigade, near the lunatic asylum.

Judge Wayne of Georgia, of the supreme court, has issued a writ of habeas corpus for one Stephens, of the Minnesota regiment. The question to be decided is whether soldiers originally three months' men, and who afterwards enlisted for the war, can be held.

Special despatch to the Chicago Tribune.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 15—11 P. M.

This city is all alive with the preparations for an active and vigorous campaign. Intelligence from Washington points to the acceptance of an indefinite number of troops from Illinois, the organization of which is to be left entirely to the direction of Gov. Yates. Already the quartermaster general has been clothed with authority to largely increase his facilities for the manufacture of ammunition, and to make additional contracts for clothing and equipments.

The troops continue to arrive from all parts of the state. There are now at Camp Butler 3,000 men.

General Prentiss passed through the city yesterday, en route for St. Louis, in accordance with the wishes of General Fremont.

Capt. Delano's company of Adams County Dragoons were ordered to move to St. Louis last night, and were promptly provided by Gens. Wood and Mather with outfits and transportation. The company is designed to serve with the command of Gen. Prentiss.

Brigadier General John A. McClernand arrived from the east to-day, and will immediately proceed to organize his brigade.—The relations between himself and Gov. Yates are of the most friendly character, and they will heartily co-operate in the great work of superintending the operations of Illinois in the present conflict.

Some 35 or 40 bales of blankets, en route from the east to St. Louis, and supposed to be contraband, were stopped to-day until orders from Gen. Fremont should be received permitting their delivery to the consignees—Field & Brothers.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 15.

The fleet of ten steamers which has been laid up fifteen miles below here for some time past was brought here to-day by order of Gen. Fremont, to prevent the possibility of their being taken by the secessionists.

Gen. Pope has about completed the appointment of the committee of safety in the counties of his department, according to special orders already telegraphed. Since the adoption of this plan for the preservation of property, acts of violence have materially diminished, and it is believed in a short time will entirely cease.

It is stated that some seven thousand rebel troops are approaching Ironton from south. The federal troops in that region are posted at Pilot Knob, Ironton and Arcadia, three villages which lie about two miles apart in a narrow valley, the entrance to which can be easily defended by artillery, and a flank movement is not apprehended in consequence of the impassible condition of the roads around the valley. Col. Blair arrived to-day.

CAIRO, Aug. 15.

The four regiments—11th, 17th, 18th and 19th—which left here to-day, are destined to Herculaneum, 20 miles below St. Louis, and at which point the Iron Mountain railroad leaves the river. They were called from here by Gen. Fremont.

There has been nothing heard from Pillow to-day. Scouts report that Jeff. Thompson's rebels have fallen back from Charleston to Sykeston, where they are fortifying. All the railroad bridges between Charleston and Sykeston have been burned by them.

Two of the gun-boats are gone down the river to-day on a reconnoitering expedition. Capt. Roger N. Stembel, U. S. N., arrived here to-night with thirty recruits for the boats.

The steamers Empress and Graham got in this afternoon with a large lot of mules, wagons, &c.

To-Day's Report.

MORNING DESPATCHES.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16

Tribune's despatch.—Gen. Rosencranz is authorized to accept regiments from western Virginia, which he does so as fast as they are ready for service.

Gen. Sumner was ordered to day to raise without delay, a column of 5,000 or 10,000 Californians, and march them into Texas and Arkansas. The despatches went by telegraph to Ft. Kearney, thence by pony express. Another order will soon be sent to California for a regiment of cavalry.

An order has gone to Europe for 15,000 more arms.

It is rumored that a rebel force is moving from Morfield to Great Savage mountain pass, to reinforce Gen. Wise. The troops which hold the pass, are ready for them.

The Tribune says the southern pirates are playing a desperate and bloody game. Our North Carolina correspondent this morning gives the statement of a British sailor named Ross, who had been impressed to serve as a gunner on board the Speed, by which it appears that on the 31st July, near Nag's Head, the pirates attacked and took possession of a British vessel, which they burned, after destroying the entire crew. Ross having refused to fight against his countrymen, was shot at and wounded by the captain of the Speed, and afterwards confined in irons. He escaped by the aid of a fellow sailor, who had also been impressed. Ross is endeavoring to make his way north and wishes to lay the subject before the British officials.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.

Herald's dispatch.—Major General Butler has been authorized to raise a division of 5,000 men in Massachusetts, and is to be granted leave of absence to superintend in person the organization of the division. Gen. Butler will have full power to thoroughly appoint the new division, providing it does not cost more in Massachusetts than it would cost here.

It is reported by passengers arrived to-night from the west, by way of Harper's Ferry, that Gen. Rosencranz, with a small command, is in a precarious position in a mountain gap in the neighborhood of Big Spring, and that a rebel force had cut him off from water.

Evidences of an advance of the enemy toward our lines are daily multiplying.

Yesterday a resident of Virginia, living near Claremont, five miles from Alexandria, reports the rebels at Brush Hill and Claremont. The efforts of the rebels to gather men into the secession fold have not been abandoned.

It was noticed some weeks ago that a considerable rebel force had been concentrated in the upper part of Accomac county, on the eastern shore of Virginia. It appears that there are about 150 or 200 armed rebels there.

Gen. Tilghman, who was deposed from his militia rank last spring, by Gov. Hicks, and subsequently restored by the state legislature, is organizing the disunionists in the lower counties of Maryland. He is about to proceed to Accomac to take command of the Virginia forces there, and march them up into the middle of the eastern shore of Maryland, as the nucleus for the formation of a rebel army there, which shall, if it can do nothing else, control the elections in the fall, so as to secure a disunion majority in the legislature and enable the secessionists to pass a secession ordinance, or perhaps to enforce an ordinance of secession that may be passed by the present legislature at its adjourned session.

World's dispatch.—The states of Kentucky and Tennessee have been constituted a separate military command, to be called the department of Cumberland, Brig. Gen. Robt. Anderson commanding.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.

The first new gun boat will be launched to-morrow; another next week and four others in fifteen days.

Thomas S. Seerill, a violent secessionist, was arrested on the arrival of the Persia, with £40,000 in Bank of England notes, the proceeds of a loan for the confederate states. Seerill is a native of New Orleans, about 50 years old, and very wealthy. A number of letters and important papers were also found upon him.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 16.

A messenger from Gen. Sigel arrived early this morning. He reports Gen. Sigel 15 miles this side of Lebanon, expecting to reach Rolla to-day. He had not been molested on the route. Gen. Lyon was buried on Col. Phelps' farm, near Springfield. It was reported that the rebels had entered Springfield and were encamped in and around the town. The messenger also states that the whole number of killed, wounded and missing on the federal side does not exceed 400; and that McCulloch and a number of rebel officers were killed.

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 16.

By a private despatch from Col. Starkweather, we learn that the First Wisconsin Regiment will be here to-morrow, and proceed from the depot to Camp Scott, their old camping ground, where they will probably be mustered out of service.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.

Special to Post.—Our foreign relations attract the attention of the government at present. The administration at all hazards will maintain its right to close the rebel ports. The question is now under discussion between our government and those of England and France, and it is believed that our right will be fully conceded.

The National Intelligencer has a theory that Ex-Minister Faulkner is not imprisoned because he intended to join the rebel army, but that he is held as hostage for Congressman Ely and Messrs. McGraw and Harris, non-combatants, now in the hands of the enemy.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.

A party of six men left the steamer Roseth yesterday, and landed at Mathews Point yesterday for the purpose of reconnoitering. They were fired on by a party of rebels, concealed in the brush, and four of them killed. The bodies of the dead seamen arrived at the navy yard to-day.

SYRACUSE, Aug. 16.

Mud Lock on the Oswego canal is repaired, and navigation resumed last night. Navigation on the Erie is uninterrupted.

NEW YORK, Aug. 16.

J. A. King, a catholic priest, was last eve taken into custody and conveyed to the detective police of New York, by a number of excited Germans, who alleged that he was a secessionist. They charged that he partook of lager beer with a number of volunteers and tried to induce them to desert their companies. He abused the government outrageously, contending that the southern confederacy ought to be recognized, and finally became so bold in his assertions as to enrage the Germans, and they at once arrested him. Their prisoner was detained for examination.

BOSTON, Aug. 16.

The British steamer Eastern State, from Yarmouth, Novia Scotia, which arrived this morning, brought four hhds. and 92 bbls. spirits of turpentine, and 31 bales of North Carolina cotton, which is presumed to have escaped the blockade, and was taken to Yarmouth, N. S. It is said the owner of the turpentine will clear 17,000 dollars.

FORT MONROE, Aug. 15.

The report that the rebels around Fox Hill have connected a wire with the telegraph from Old Point to Newport News, and thus obtained our despatches, is found to be entirely without foundaiion.

MILWAUKEE, Aug. 16.

Flour steady and firm. Sales 500 bbls., fair to good spring extras at 3,75a4,00.—Wheat market excited early in the day, but closing steady and 1c better. Sales 35,000 bu., 81a86 for No. 1 and 2 in store and 90 for extra, delivered. Receipts, 1500 bbls. flour, 27,000 bus. wheat.

A late New Orleans paper has the following: The board of underwriters, following the wake of the cotton factors of New Orleans, have passed a resolution of more than usual interest to steamboats. It is as follows:

Resolved, That no river insurance on cotton bound to this port, nor fire insurance on cotton in the city of New Orleans be taken until the blockade of the port is raised, and its free navigation resumed. Cotton on plantations may be insured against fire to the extent of three-fourths its value, provided it is stored in lots not exceeding one hundred and fifty bales, and the lots at three hundred feet apart.

The elephant belonging to a troupe of traveling equestrians in France, called the Troupe Americaine, recently brooke loose and devoured such a mass of newly cut clover that it became dreadfully swollen and expired in a few hours.

CRITTENDEN'S AMENDMENT.—Mr. Crittenden has improved since the day in which he went about making compromises. He now goes for making war. At a speech at Columbus lately, he said of the war:

"We must meet it like men. It is not a war that is to be prosecuted for the sake of war, and ought to be conducted with none of the common barbarities of war. It must nevertheless, be prosecuted by no half way measures. My friends, we must gather the utmost strength of the country, and gird up the energies of our minds in this momentous contest. And let it be prosecuted only for the purpose that it ought to be carried on, and concluded for the restoration of our government and the Union.

* * * * * * *

It becomes, therefore, a duty to maintain this government and this magnificent land from the terrible calamity of disunion.—This I would aim by all the powers of my life to prevent. Hence it is that I have just come from voting millions of money and hundreds of thousand of men; and in order that the issue may be decided more speedily and our erring brethren united to us once more. For, fellow citizens, I believe we shall be re-united. And I have confidence in the belief that, instead of destroying or even weakening us, this war will make our Union stronger than ever before."

These are the latest and best of Mr. Crittenden's amendments.

BLOODY TRAGEDY.—The Nebraska City News has been furnished with the particulars of a most bloody tragedy that occurred on the 12th ultimo on Rock Creek, some one hundred and ten miles from that city. It smacks of frontier life all through:

One D. C. McCandless, a noted desperado, had occupied a station on the mail route from Leavenworth to Fort Kearney, and had sold out to the express company. After a time he got tired of his bargain, and endeavored to buy it back again, but the express company refused to sell. He thereupon threatened to take it by force. He had, it seems, organized a band of secessionists for the purpose of robbery and murder; and with the aid of two of the band, James Wood and James Gordon, made an attempt to regain the station and kill its occupants. On the 12th they attacked the station, and while McCandless attempted to effect an entrance, Wood and Gordon went in pursuit of a woman who happened to be outside. While pursuing her around the house, Mr. Heacox, who was inside, shot McCandless, killing him instantly. The two outside then made for the door, but were met by Heacox, who immediately shot down Gordon. Wood, finding the place rather hot, started to run; but when he had got about sixty yards from the house, a shot from Heacox brought him down also. Heacox used a navy revolver, and fired but three times, killing his man instantly each shot.

We learn that this McCandless has been a terror to the road for some time, and that he had banded some eight or ten men together to commit depredations on settlers and travelers, who were boasting of their rebellious attitude to the country.

TWO WAUKESHA BOYS POISONED—NARROW ESCAPE.—When the fifth regiment arrived at Baltimore, two of the Waukesha Union Guards, we learn, were poisoned by an old female fiend, and narrowly escaped losing their lives. One of the victims, Mr. Orlando Culver, writes the following particulars of the circumstances to his wife, in this village. He says:

When the regiment arrived here, (Baltimore,) John Doughty and myself, being un well, were put into a car to wait for a carriage to carry us to the camp ground.—While waiting there, several of the citizens came round, and one lady, who seemed very enthusiastic in our cause, desired to get us food and drink. She did bring cakes and water. John ate one cake; I ate two and drank some water, and in about half an hour afterwards, was siezed with violent vomiting, cramps and pains. I was dangerously sick for about twelve hours, but by good medical treatment, am about all right again. My body was covered with large, hard lumps, which were very painful. John Doughty was also in a bad way, but not as sick as I was. The old rip, there is no doubt, designed to kill us.—Waukesha Democrat.

Whisky is not demonstrated to be so potent an agent in the harvest field in extreme hot weather, as many claim. A farmer in this county set four men to bind after a reaper, one of the hottest days of last week. Two of them used whisky, and would not work without it. The other two drank no whisky at all, but one of them used water sweetened slightly with molasses, with a smart sprinkling of ginger, while the other eschewed all such gimcracks, and fell back upon pure Adam's ale. For the first three hours the men kept well together, there being no apparent difference in their respective capacities for doing that kind of work. As Old Sol ascended the sky, his rays smote them with a power which drew the perspiration in streams down their faces and bodies. The men who used the whisky now began to flag, wipe their faces, and complain of the heat, ever and anon drawing a suspicious flask for a sip or two—for they were only moderate users of the article, but nevertheless believed it to be impossible to go through harvest without it—and finally, about 11 o'clock one of them left the field for a tree, used up by the heat and the fiery stimulus he had poured into his stomach; the other failed to appear after dinner. The remaining two went through the sweltering afternoon, with scarcely a breath of air on the stir, and performed a big day's work each. The one who drank the ginger was troubled with a severe headache near the close of the day. Not being subject at all to headache, he inferred that it might have been caused by the ginger, and omitted it the next day, when he found that he was not troubled with it again. Our friend says that when he sees whisky going into the harvest field that he is always very sure there will be only half the work done that there would be if it was kept out. Laborers addicted to the habit of stimulating with this miserable stuff, are generally the ones visited by coup de soleil.—Belvidere Standard.

THE NEW ORLEANS BLOCKADE.—Intelligence has been received that another privateer steamer, the McRea, from New Orleans, ran the blockade on the 30th of July. Letters have been received in this city from persons on the steamer Brooklyn, one of which we published a few days ago, stating that the privateer Sumter which has been making such havoc with our commerce, might easily have been captured when she left New Orleans, by the Brooklyn, if Capt. Poor, to the astonishment of the whole crew, had not ordered the chase to cease when they were within range, and were fast overhauling her. This is probably another case of the same kind. We have good reasons for believing that a traitor is in command of the Brooklyn who is playing into the hands of the enemy.

TAKING SHOT COOLLY.—In the late battle at Bull's Run, a soldier, around whom the cannon shot were flying pretty thick, on seeing one strike and bury itself in a bank near him, sprang to the hole it had scooped out, remarking, "Shoot away, you can't hit twice in the same place." At that instant another struck a few feet distant, almost covering the fellow with sand and gravel. Emerging from what had so nearly become his grave, he continued the unfinished sentence, "but you can come so pesky near it that the first hole is uncomfortable."

DIED.

In this city on the evening of the 15th, DANIEL, infant son of Wm. H. and Sarah M. Ebbetts, aged one year and five months.

The funeral will take place to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock. Services on the occasion to be attended at Trinity Church. The friends of the parents are invited to attend.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

By a resolution of the Board of Education of the city of Janesville, at a meeting held at their office in said city August 13th, 1861, it was resolved that the Public Schools of the city should be re-opened on MONDAY the 2d day of September next. Teachers in the employ of the board will please hold themselves in readiness to enter upon the discharge of their duties at that time.

au15d1w JAMES ARMSTRONG, Clerk.

VOTE OF THANKS.—The following resolutions are reported by the committee of excurtionists to Chicago last Tuesday. Mr. Pattison is well entitled to the thanks of every person who had the good fortune to be one of that party.

Resolved, That in the inception and preparation of the excursion last Tuesday, we recognise another evidence of the liberality with which the business of the C. & N. W. R. W. is conducted, and of the genial nature of Mr. Pattison, its agent.

Resolved, That the thanks of each excursionist are hereby tendered to Mr. Pattison, with the expression of the hope that there are "a few more of the same sort" in reserve.

DEPARTURE.—The Rev. Mr. Heckman left this city to-day to assume the pastoral charge of the Third Presbyterian Church in Indianopolis. Mr. Heckman has been a faithful laborer here, and in his departure for a more extended field of labor carries with him the regrets and good wishes of his congregation and the community in which he has been a resident.

RE-ISSUE OF A PATENT.—We notice in the Scientific American that a patent has been re-issued to Jefferson Nash, assignor to himself and A. K. Cutts, of this city, for their improvement in grain separators, which was patented Sept. 27, 1859. This is a very valuable improvement upon grain separators, which has been thoroughly tested in this country, and receives the approval of all interested in cleaning grain.

SUBSISTENCE OF THE REGIMENTS.—The Madison Journal says that in regard to the expense of subsisting the regiments at Madison, the companies are to be sworn into the U. S. service as they arrive, and Capt. McIntyre, of the U. S. A., provides for their subsistence at once, at the expense of the United States.

If we are not mistaken, the same story was told about the 5th and 6th regiments, and yet, according to the figures of the Journal itself, the state has paid $12,953.75 for the subsistence of those regiments—allowing 37⅝ cents per day for each man, while in Fond du Lac the men were better fed at 26 cents per day, and in Racine at about 19 cents.

Should anybody come to the conclusion that Madison, in quartering six of the eight regiments, and as the recipient of numerous other incidental or direct benefits, is a favored locality, we hardly think we shall enter into a dispute as to the correctness of the opinion.

AN ANCIENT DEED.—Mr. A. D. Wickham has left with us, prior to sending it to the State Historical Society, a deed issued by the state of New York to John Garnsey, dated August 8th, 1789, and signed by George Clinton, as governor of the state, and Robert Harper, deputy secretary. A plaster seal, 3½ inches in diameter, with an ornament on one side resembling the representation of the Grand Llama of Peru in the old geographies, and the other an iceberg is attached. The deed conveys 1000 acres of land on the Susquehannah river, reserving all gold and silver mines, and five acres of every hundred acres of the tract for highways.

This deed will constitute a valuable addition to the collection of curiosities in the cabinet of the society.

IMPORTANT TO OUR READERS.—It is with feelings of joy and gladness that we publish anything that will contribute to the pleasure, interest or health of our patrons. Therefore, with pleasure we say to our readers, one and all, use D. B. DeLand & Co.'s Chemical Salaratus. This saleratus is perfectly pure, healthy and of a uniform quality. Chemists and manufacturers very well know that it requires trouble and expense to make a perfectly pure article, while an inferior and impure article can be made with much less cost and trouble; while impure saleratus is very unhealthy, pure saleratus is harmless and renders the food healthy and nutritious. Knowing these facts, D. B. DeLand & Co. have been to trouble and expense in bringing this article before the public. This saleratus is manufactured by a new process, known only by this concern in this country and discovered by D. B. DeLeland, in Europe, two years ago. This saleratus is put up in bright, red papers and you can get it of any respectable dealer in town, and at wholesale in Chicago and Milwaukee.

AN OBJECT OF CONTEMPT.—When a man goes about the streets whining because nobody will notice him, he is in a fair way to make himself the object of contempt he assumes himself to be.

A dentist named Blake, a resident of Litchfield, Conn., was compelled a few days since to pay respect to the American flag; subsequently meeting one of the committee who waited upon him, he took the liberty of caning him. The friends of the sufferer then rallied, and seizing Blake, ducked him in a horse trough, and then compelled him to kneel at the trough and take the oath of allegiance to the Union.

Pa, didn't you whip me for biting Tommy?

Yes, my child, you hurt him very much, indeed.

Well, then, pa, you ought to whip mama's music teacher, too, for he bit mama yesterday right on the mouth, and I know it hurt her, because she put her arms round his neck and tried to choke him.

Letter from George F. Saunders.

The following is a portion of a letter written to Wm. Eggleson by our lively friend, Saunders:

FORT CORCORAN, August 9th, 1861.

We are sweating away, as usual, and in middling health. Are my friends all well? If so, amen, and peace be with you all till I see you, which I hope will be soon, as I understand that when I have been six months in the serviee, I shall have a months furlough, if we get safely through the coming fight we are momentarily expecting. I think there will be an attack on Washington, Harper's Ferry, and the lower bridge. The enemy is reported to have 300,000 men. McLean is on guard to day, and if he is not sweating, there are no snakes in Ireland. He used to whistle "Dixie," but has now played out on that amusement. If you want to hear me sing, come down to Old Virginia, and you can get the worth of your money. Nobody but the darkies here, however, can do the subject full justice. Most of them are genuine ebonies, though there are some who are a little "mixed." They put on a good many airs, and then "go in" on their nerve; they begin to work, and then commence to sweat, and then "Lor Moses," it would do you good to see them! Such work, and such sweat! you can have no idea of what hot weather is until you see or try it.

We expected a fight last night. Cannons were cleaned, and everything put in order. Troops were on every corner. You should have been on Arlington Heights, and you would have wondered where so many men came from. Lieut. McLean gave us a little skirmishing, and if we do not die, we were as wet as rats.

A friend has just come into our camp and distributed one of the native productions of the country, in the shape of a mammoth watermelon. After storing away the cargo, for fear of the consequences, we took some —— pepper sauce, and came out sound.

Some secession prisoners were taken last night. They look hard. We have heard from good authority that all the rebel troops subsist on is what they steal from Manasses to Richmond. They have taken the last morsel they can find in houses, and in many cases have turned families out of doors nearly naked. One gentlemen was in our camp the other day, a good Unionist. He came to our tent, and we know he is sound by the papers he has got from the government. He has been ouchered out of his home, and everything he has on earth. He left for fear of being drafted into the rebel army. His family are scattered, and he, noble looking as he is, is completely broken hearted. I pity him from the bottom of my heart. Such cases occur every day. The time is not far distant when those wretches who commit such outrages will realize there is a God in Israel.

I have seen enough to satisfy me that war is sickening. The sights of such a battle as we have been in are enough to chill the blood of any man who lives for better things. Cutting, tearing and smashing the features of a man into a shape that his nearest friends are not able to recognize him, except by a small strip of ribbon or some little memento given by some loved one, is truly terrible. During the late battle, one young man said to me—"Sergeant Saunders, you appear to have no troubles; you well know we are to have a terrible fight; hear those cannon. I think I can fight, but here is something; (pulling a picture from his breast pocket,) if I could only see her once more all would be well." I told him to pluck up courage, but I could see plainly that there was a heavy weight on his heart. He replied—"I would give everything I ever possessed to see my family once more and shake hands with them." He wiped away a tear, and the drum beat for a "double-quick" advance. He went into the assault, so all hands say, like a young Napoleon, and I heard that he was the first to be shot at the right of the brigade. I had no time to look after him, but I missed him and many others.

I occasionally look about through the different regiments, especially the New York Highlanders. They were near us in the battle. Archy is acquainted with a good many of the officers and men. The best they had was none too good for us. How many of them bit the dust the papers will tell you. Truly, this is the beginning of sorrows; but the end is not yet.

Give my love to Betty, and my small chaps. GEORGE. F. SAUNDERS.

We publish below a letter from Brigadier General Sherman to the Adjutant General of the U. S. army, recommending Lt. Col. Peck for an appointment in the army. The letter is a complete refutation of the charges which had their origin in jealousy, and which have been so industriously circulated by certain journals in this state.—Monroe Sentinel.

FORT CORCORAN, Aug. 2.

To the Adjutant General, Washington, D. C.:

SIR:—H. W. Peck, late lieutenant colonel commanding the 2d regiment Wisconsin volunteers, tells me he is an applicant for a commission in the 5th artillery. I take pleasure in giving him this assurance, that from my knowledge of him during the past month in command of a volunteer regment in camp and on the march, as well as under fire, I believe him to be well qualified and well entitled to the appointment he asks for.

I shall be well pleased to see his name announced as captain or first lieutenant 5th artillery.

I have the honor to be your obedient servant, W. T. SHERMAN, Brigadier General.

O, THE TYPES!—No amount of caution can prevent the occurrence of annoying blunders. The Springfield Republican of Wednesday contained a most absurd blunder, by which, in the report of Rev. Dr. Davis' address before the alumni at Williams College, a good man and a missionary, was consigned to a terrible fate. Rev. Gordon Hall was stated to have died in the "richness of sin," instead of the "interior of Asia."

A REMONSTANCE.—A meeting of the German republicans was held yesterday, at Geser's saloon on East Water street, over which Mr. Neustadtl presided, at which a remonstrance was adopted against the appointment of Marcus Otterbourg as consul to Mexico, or to any other office in the government, with a resolution to forward said remonstrance to Secretary Seward.—Mil. Sentinel.

THE UNION AND THE REBEL FORCES IN NORTHWESTERN MISSOURI.—A respectable citizen of Knox county, Missouri, called on us yesterday, and gave us some information about affairs in that part of the state that is anything but encouraging to the Union inhabitants. He states that on Wednesday the 31st of July, a band of about 1,800 secessionists entered Edina, the capital of that county, at which were encamped between 300 and 500 Home Guards, but partially armed with shot-guns, pistols, &c., and with not exceeding three or four rounds of ammunition for each gun. The Home Guards, in view of the vast numbers of the rebels compared with their own, and of the great disparity in arms and ammunition, deemed it prudent to retire, as a collision would inevitably have resulted in the complete success of the rebels.

There is a number of companies and parts of companies of Home Guards now at Canton, who design forming a battalion or regiment, to go into active service as soon as arms and ammunition can be procured.—Deputations from the Home Guards have been sent to Gen's. Hurlbut, Pope and Fremont, and to the military commanders late at Keokuk, for the purpose of procuring a sufficient military force to disperse the rebels, or of obtaining arms and ammunition with which to defend themselves and protect their families and property, but with no success or encouragement whatever.

The rebels have had late accessions to their forces, numbering now not less than 4,000 effective men, most of them well mounted, with five fine field pieces—one nine-pounder and four six-pounders. They have four encampments—one in Edina, one about ten miles northeast, and one ten miles east. They are subsisting altogether upon what they can plunder from Union citizens, entering their houses, and fields, and taking whatever they are pleased to lay their hands on. They have taken a number of Union men as prisoners, one of whom, a respectable and prominent citizen, a captain of Home Guards, has been hung, if report be true. The house of our informant has been surrounded by them for the last two weeks, during which time he has neither seen nor heard from his family. A number of other Union citizens and their families are in the same condition.

Our informant was accompanied to this city by four or five other citizens of Missouri, all officers of Home Guards, who come here for the purpose of procuring arms and ammunition, but with what success we have not yet learned. He states that a number of families have left their homes and all they possess, except what they could take with them, to seek locations in Iowa and Illinois, and that many others would do likewise if they could get away.

We have no means of knowing the disposition or intention of any of our military authorities whose jurisdiction extends over northern Missouri, but there can be no doubt of the necessity of the immediate adoption of measures for the protection of its inhabitants from the lawless ravages of rebel bands, and their utter annihilation from the face of the earth, if such a hopeful result is practicable.—Quincy Herald, August 13th.

DEATH OF BENJAMIN CAMPBELL.—A letter from a member of the 6th Wisconsin regiment, dated Baltimore, Aug. 6th, and published in the Milwaukee Wisconsin on the 8th, gives the following account of the sudden death of Benjamin Campbell, the orderly sergeant of the regiment, while marching through the city of Baltimore:

"On marching from the depot to the camp, Orderly Sergeant Campbell fell out of the ranks unobserved, and went to the Peabody House for lodging. In the hurry of preparing the encampment he was not missed, until word was sent to the camp that he was found dead in his bed. From careful inquiry, he must have reached the house at nearly the same time the regiment passed, and from the appearance of the body, died immediately after lying down. A coroner's inquest was held, whose verdict was, 'death caused by physical exhaustion.' His body was escorted by his comrades to Green Mount cemetery, placed in the vault, and will to-day be buried by his company."

Sergeant Campbell for some years lived in this city, but more recently his residence has been at Columbus. He enlisted as a Wisconsin volunteer, became orderly sergeant of the sixth regiment, was mustered into the United States service, and has met his fate while on his way to the field of martial and patriotic duty, from the poisonous shaft of an enemy as sure and deadly, though it may be more slow, as any ever hurled by the fiercest mortal enemy.—Watertown Democrat.

GUNS FOR EAST TENNESSEE.—A correspondent from Cynthiana informs us that 6,000 stand of arms passed over the Covington and Lexington railroad on August 8th. They are intended for the east Tennesseans, who adhere to the federal government.—Louisville Courier.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.
